Location of 250 Acres Involved as Suit Against Phil Stanton Heard

MAN WHO SURVEYED IN COUNTY IN '85 HEARD

Alamitos Land Company Is Plaintiff In Action Over Beach Property

The musty files of the early 50s, their yellowed pages inscribed with the handwriting of a ghostly figure, the pioneer federal surveyor who ran his boundary lines more than half a century ago, were scanned today with eagerness as learned lawyers fought in a local court over titles to a large tract of land at Seal Beach.

The suit of the Alamitos Land company against Phil A. Stanton, under way before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams, harked back to the early history of California. On the government surveys of 1853 and 1855, when township lines were laid out, the surveys of 1858 when the Alamitos ranch boundary lines were run, and on more modern surveys, hinges the result of the suit.

Stanton's title to nearly 250 acres, which are involved, is not questioned by the plaintiff. The location is, however, at issue, and surveying records therefore play a leading part.

F. Friel, Los Angeles, took the witness stand today for the plaintiff and testified regarding surveys he made of the district in 1885 while he was deputy surveyor of Los Angeles county.

Col. S. H. Finley, of Santa Ana, was expected to be called later by Stanton to identify certain corners established in surveys he made of the disputed territory.

Stanton is represented in court by Bordwell and Mathews, of Los Angeles. James Daley and Ward Chapman are counsel for the plaintiff.

"30" BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—President Harding is opposed to the discussion of shipping treaties at the armament conference, it was learned at the White House today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Demand for witness fees before accepting summons as witnesses against Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle was made today by Alice Blake and Zey Pyron, show girls who figure as the star witnesses in the prosecution of Arbuckle on charges of taking the life of Virginia Rappe.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—President Harding will insist that the soldier bonus bill carry a provision for raising the money involved, it was stated officially at the White House.

School Superintendent J. A. Cranston and Louis Plummer, principal of Fullerton high school, will leave tomorrow for Sacramento to appear before the state board of education now in session there, in regard to the reorganization of Santa Ana and Fullerton junior colleges to conform with the recently enacted state law dividing such institutions into three classes, district, union and county.

Advised that if he desired to see his brother alive it would be necessary for him to come to the brother's bedside at Fullerton at once, Superior Judge Sidney N. Reeve in Los Angeles at noon today suddenly adjourned the trial of Arthur C. Burch, accused of the murder of John Belton Kennedy, and in an automobile speeded to the northern Orange county city. The brother, John Reeve, has been ill for some time, it was stated. His illness took a turn for the worse at noon today.

DENVER DEATH TOLL FROM SMALL POX 49

DENVER, Jan. 10.—The death toll from small pox was raised to 49 here today with the death of two more victims. Five new cases were reported.

PREPARE FOR CALIF. ANTI-LIQUOR DRIVE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—E. C. Yellowley, chief of federal prohibition agents, is to go to San Francisco to operate with State Director Mitchell, California, in a cleanup prohibition drive in that state, it was announced today.

Pullman Car Company Predicts Lower Fares Through Merger

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—A big merger which may eventually bring lower Pullman rates was approved by the interstate commerce commission today.

It authorized the Pullman company to acquire control of the Haskell and Barker manufacturing plants, Michigan City, Ind., so that it could manufacture its own cars. The merger will make possible greater economies in construction costs, the Pullman company said.

C. E. Nash, Los Angeles, filed objections to the proposal on the ground that the consideration proposed is excessive and would result in higher charges to the public by the Pullman company.

Machine Is Demolished As El Monte Autoist Drives On Track Ahead of Locomotive.

EL MONTE, Calif., Jan. 10.—Mrs. J. C. White was instantly killed and Mrs. Mary McClellan was possibly fatally injured when an automobile in which they were riding was demolished by a fast train on the San Bernardino line here today.

According to railway officials the women presumably ignored an automatic wig-wag signal at the crossing, which warned of the approaching train.

The automobile was reduced to splinters.

Borah Launches Hot Attack On Michigan Solon

BY LAWRENCE MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The taint of corruption adheres to Truman H. Newberry as a result of the excessive use of money in his campaign for the senate, even though he may have had no part in the corruption, Senator Borah, Idaho, declared today in a speech in the senate assailing Newberry's right to his seat.

It was believed Newberry's fate would be decided today in an informal conference of half a dozen Republican senators.

The group that met today included Willis, Ohio; McNary, Oregon; Capper, Kansas, and several other "wavering" Republicans. They recently sent word to administration leaders that unless Newberry spoke in his own defense, they would vote to unseat him.

These senators have the decisive votes—they and George Wharton Pepper, the new senator from Pennsylvania, who was to be sworn in today to succeed Senator Penrose.

Senators Robinson, Arkansas; Walsh, Montana, and Hefflin, Alabama contributed to the bombardment of Newberry's position.

It was reported about the senate, that Jones, Washington, a Republican, had come out definitely against Newberry, while Cummins, Iowa, had come out for him.

STUDY WORKING RULES

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Final consideration of rules governing working conditions of 300,000 employees of railroads, over which disputes have arisen, was started by the United States railroad labor board today.

Solons in Probe of Hangings May Quiz 'Hard-Boiled' Smith

BY LAURENCE BENEDICT (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Calling of "Hard-boiled" Smith as a witness, if he can be located, was considered today by the senate committee probing alleged illegal hangings, murders and brutalities in the American army during the war.

The investigators want Smith to testify concerning cruelty charges of soldiers who were in the American training camps near Paris.

If Smith, who is reported to be in Mexico, cannot be located, one of the officers who served under him at the Paris prison farm will be summoned, Senator Overman of the committee said.

The hearing opened today with Senator Watson of Georgia, shooting questions at Colonel W. A. Bethel of the army general staff, about the eleven hangings

BEGIN PROBE OF DEATH CAUSED WHEN P. E. CAR HITS AUTO

An official investigation into a collision between an automobile and a Pacific Electric car, which resulted fatally to George Waltz Jr., 18, of Santa Ana and East Newport, was being conducted today by Coroner Charles D. Brown, with an inquest to be held probably this afternoon. Waltz died last evening on his way to the Community hospital, a few minutes after the crash, which took place at Eleventh and Main streets at 6:08 p. m.

Completion of funeral arrangements was today awaiting word from the youth's father, George Waltz sr., who is division superintendent at Henderson, Ky., for the Illinois Central railroad.

The body is at the Smith and Tutthill undertaking establishment here.

The father had returned to Kentucky but a few days ago, after spending the Christmas holidays here with his wife and son, who have been living at the Seaside apartments at East Newport.

Waltz, who was a mechanic employed by the Pashley Motor Sales company, local Chevrolet dealers, was driving a Chevrolet car belonging to a friend, H. D. Dreisbach, when he met his death.

How Accident Occurred In attempting to pass a truck, heavily laden with boxes of merchandise, Waltz was confronted by a Pacific Electric car approaching from the opposite direction. He tried to steer his car between the electric car and the truck, but lacked room. The electric car struck the Chevrolet on the left side, near the rear wheel.

Waltz was thrown from the car and struck the pavement ten feet away, the Chevrolet being dragged back about fifteen feet, where Motorist E. E. White made a remarkably quick stop of the Pacific Electric car.

Suffering from a fractured skull and a crushed chest, Waltz opened his eyes but once after the crash. This was when he was spoken to by H. P. Makosky, 1017 North Main street, in front of whose home the accident took place. He never recovered full consciousness and was dead when Makosky brought him to the hospital. Makosky first telephoned for an ambulance, but decided not to wait for it, pressing a passing automobile into service.

The police, investigating the wreck, were unable at first to discover the identity of Waltz or the ownership of the car. A laundry ticket bearing the name of Dreisbach was finally found in a remote corner of the car.

Borrows Friend's Car Dreisbach, who is an advertising salesman for the Santa Ana News, was attending a lecture and was unaware that Waltz had taken his car. The two were friends, however, and Waltz frequently drove the machine. Dreisbach and his wife also reside at the Seaside apartments at East Newport and it was Dreisbach's custom to take Waltz back and forth from Santa Ana in his car. They had planned to ride home together after the lecture last night.

Waltz meanwhile took the car. He drove it along West Washington to Main street just before the accident. The truck, traveling south on Main street, passed Washington and Waltz reached the intersection.

Waltz, it was said, tried to turn south on Main ahead of the truck, but failed and dropped in behind the truck. He immediately started to pull around the truck and was in the act of passing it when the crash occurred.

Noted Doctor Opens Fight To Build Up Perfect Race

United Press Leased Wire

MANSFIELD, O., Jan. 10.—A perfect race was visualized today as Dr. W. H. Brown of the Child Health Demonstration league began work with this all-American town as a laboratory.

Dr. Brown, former city health officer of Bridgeport, Conn., and with the Rockefeller Foundation in France, started a five year experiment with the Mansfield children to concoct a recipe for all-American cities to copy in producing a perfect race.

A fund of $200,000 has been provided for the work by the American Red Cross, American Child Hygiene association, Child Health organization of America, Child Labor committee, National Tuberculosis association and National Organization for Public Health nursing.

Dr. Brown began work on a program to use all known remedies to fight disease and conserve child life. The result, Dr. Brown believes, will be a formula to make future men and women perfect in health.

DEATH PILLS GIVEN SLEEPING GIRLS IN MYSTERY POISONING

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Jan. 10.—District Attorney George Hoyle today ordered parts of the body of Miss Johanna Haberhauer sent to San Francisco for chemical examination after an autopsy performed here had failed to determine the cause of her death.

Hoyle said that the inquest would be delayed until a report from chemists in San Francisco could be secured.

United Press Leased Wire

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Jan. 10.—An autopsy to determine whether or not Johanna Haberhauer, aged 19, of Santa Rosa, was the victim of some night prowling poisoner, was being held here today.

Miss Haberhauer died during the night and her mother, Mary, aged 18, was still seriously ill today from the effects of "something like a pill" which the younger girl said she swallowed during the night.

The younger girl said that the "pill" was in her mouth when she awoke and she has no knowledge of how it came to be there.

During the night the younger of the two sisters, who were sleeping together, arose and told her mother and father, Karl Haberhauer and wife, that her sister was in convulsions and that she was sick from swallowing "something like a pill."

Simple household remedies were given as first aid and Dr. Charles Mooney was called. Johanna, however, died in agony twenty minutes before the physician reached the Haberhauer home. He was able to save the younger sister.

Officers were called immediately to investigate and an autopsy was ordered this morning to be followed by an inquest later in the day.

Investigation showed that a grape vine leading from the ground to the roof of the house, passed the window of the room where the two girls were sleeping. It would have formed an easy means for a prowler to enter.

The younger girl said today that when they retired for the night her impression was that the window was down. When she arose to call help the window was open.

Dr. Mooney said today that the symptoms were those of strychnine poisoning. Sheriff John Boyes was inclined to the theory of murder as an explanation and ordered the investigation to proceed on that basis.

The murder theory was strengthened today when the girls' father told authorities that some time ago he had had trouble with a ranch hand and that the man had threatened to kill the entire family. The man was said to have been seen in the vicinity recently.

Representatives of the sheriff's and district attorney's offices visited the Haberhauer home during the morning and took statements from all members of the family. They also made a complete survey of the premises.

U. S. Air Ace Praises Parley For Refusal to Limit Planes

By PHILIP SCHUYLER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Airplanes—which are not being restricted by the arms conference—will wage the next war, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, American ace of aces, declared today. The dreadnaughts of the sky will hurl death by gas bombs on defenseless men, women, and children.

"Nevertheless I believe the Washington aces conference is right in not restricting airplanes," Rickenbacker said in an interview given the United Press.

"Besides being the devil of war, the airplane is the angel of peace," in the opinion of the sky fighter, who brought down more Germans than any other American flyer.

DE VALERA QUILTS PARLIAMENT AS PROTEST OVER DAIL'S VOTE

By CHARLES M. McCANN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Arthur Griffith was today elected president of the Dail Eireann.

The foreign minister under De Valera will head a provisional government to arrange for the establishment of the Irish free state. Whether Griffith will also assume the presidency of the Irish republic will be threshed out in the Dail later.

As a protest against the election of Griffith, De Valera's followers left the Dail chamber.

Election Unanimous Griffith's election was made unanimous.

The election of Griffith as president of the Dail was proposed by Michael Collins when the Irish parliament met.

A message from Pope Benedict, rejoicing in the agreement with England brought about by the Dail's vote approving the treaty establishing an Irish free state, was read.

A debate between De Valera and Arthur Griffith enlivened proceedings at the opening of the Dail's session this morning. Griffith, speaking as leader of the majority, answered De Valera's objection that the Dail could not act save as the parliament of the Irish republic by saying:

"We will maintain order and continue the Dail until the people have decided that."

The former president insisted the Dail must cease to function unless it maintained the republic.

After the debate Michael Collins moved that Arthur Griffith be appointed president of the Dail. Calvin O'Duffy seconded the motion.

As a protest against this motion, Eamon De Valera left the council chamber. His supporters followed him. Afterwards sixty-five members remaining answered the roll call electing Griffith.

The Dail then approved a cabinet which Griffith presented.

The following cabinet was nominated by Arthur Griffith and approved unanimously by the Dail.

Minister of finance, Michael Collins. Foreign affairs, Gavin Duffy. Home affairs, Duggan. Local government, William Cosgrove. Economics, O'Higgins. Defense, Mulcahy.

When the Dail, after a recess following the announcement of Griffith's cabinet, resumed its meeting, De Valera and his followers were back in their places in the council chamber.

At the suggestion of President Griffith, the Dail today took an adjournment until February 14.

Workers Terribly Mangled In Hetch Hetchy Tunnel Blast as 'Missed Shot' Explodes.

GROVELAND, Cal., Jan. 10.—Three men were killed and four others badly injured by an explosion in the Hetch Hetchy tunnel at Priest Portal early today. The explosion occurred when the men drilled into a "missed shot" of dynamite.

The accident happened two and a half miles inside the tunnel.

The dead are Dick Sladen, shift boss, and Thomas Ford and Frank Miller.

W. S. McLeod had both eyes blown out and sustained other serious injuries. Tex Lann lost an arm. Julius Laetus and Enrique Tzars were badly cut and shocked.

The injured men are in such condition that their recovery is doubtful. They are in the Hetch Hetchy hospital here.

FILE THREE PROTESTS ON WATER PROPOSAL

With the date passed for filing protests against the application of the city of Santa Ana for permit to impound run-off storm waters of Santiago creek by construction of a dam in the canyon, three protests were on file today with Walter Wray, water superintendent. They are by the John T. Carpenter Water company, Serrano Water company and the Irvine company. The latter utilizes a portion of the creek water for irrigation purposes, hence the protest. The next step in the proceeding will be setting a date by the state water commission for hearing on the protests.

Another provision hitherto secret, permits the contracting nations to retain two vessels each—from the scrapping list—to be converted into aircraft carriers.

Italy was reported to have been allowed in the replacement chart the right to build two vessels—one exceeding by around ten thousand tons the 35,000-ton limit set by the treaty; the other to be under this limit by about 10,000 tons.

Incidentally, it became known that originally in making clauses to deal with suspension or alteration of the treaty in event of war, it was proposed that the United States should be the power to issue the call for a new conference. However, it was finally agreed that this call could be issued by any of the group.

A plenary session of the arms conference is expected Friday to announce to the world the acceptance by the powers of the naval limitation treaty.

Signatures of delegates of the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France, and Italy, the five powers involved in the treaty, will be affixed Saturday.

Arthur Balfour, head of the British delegation, has postponed his departure to participate in the announcement and the signing of the treaty.

Conference Near End The conference is now approaching a spectacular windup and its achievements will be proclaimed to the world in such a manner as to silence recent criticisms.

The fate of the treaty in the senate appears satisfactory, but today there came to light a move, foisted from Chinese quarters, to stir up sufficient pro-Chinese sentiment so that senators would serve notice that they would kill all treaties unless Shantung were satisfactorily settled.

The text of the treaty has been a closely guarded secret, but the United Press herewith gives a complete and authoritative resume of the pact, the first of its kind in the world's history.

In Force Until 1937 The treaty shall last until 1937 with a naval holiday of ten years, modified only to the extent of allowing the French and Italians to build two ships each.

Cruisers "auxiliary craft" shall be limited to ten thousand tons each, but there shall be no limit on the size of the battleships.

PLENARY SESSION SET FOR FRIDAY

Delegates to Sign Historic Document In Saturday's Meeting

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—All treaties and agreements reached at the armament conference will be submitted to the senate immediately after the conclusion of the conference, it was stated at the White House today. It was not disclosed whether the president will present them to the senate in person or by messenger.

By CARL D. GROAT (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Special provisions to guard against "loopholes" in the new naval limitation treaty that might lead to war have been inserted in the pact by the arms conference.

Every effort has been made to make the treaty an "air tight" document for the preservation of the peace of the world.

These "anti-loophole" provisions heretofore unrevealed, but made available to the United Press are:

1.—The contracting powers pledge themselves not to use for war purposes any war vessels they are building for other nations. Under this clause, a nation could not seize vessels on the ways in its own country in case of war.

2.—The contracting powers pledge themselves not to sell old vessels to other nations which might become war vessels for these other powers. This is designed to prevent vessels destined for the scrap heap from being sold outside. New vessels can be built for outside nations.

Another provision hitherto secret, permits the contracting nations to retain two vessels each—from the scrapping list—to be converted into aircraft carriers.

Italy was reported to have been allowed in the replacement chart the right to build two vessels—one exceeding by around ten thousand tons the 35,000-ton limit set by the treaty; the other to be under this limit by about 10,000 tons.

STRIVE TO MAKE SITE ELECTION UNNECESSARY

At a meeting of the Tustin high school board, scheduled for next Monday night, it is expected that final action will be taken in connection with the purchase of a site for the erection of a modern high school building made possible under the recent bond issue of $250,000.

Although the board has several sites under consideration, it was said today that popular sentiment favors the purchase of the 15-acre tract owned by Sam Tustin. With this end in view fully 150 residents of the Tustin districts today were on record as favoring this proposal. The school board, however, is not unanimous in favoring this site, it was said, and opposition is expected to develop at Monday night's meeting. Three of the five board members were said to approve the proposal to buy the Tustin tract, while two members were inclined to favor a location further out on the Laguna road.

Opinions Differ
While there has been considerable diversity of opinion among the board members, I. L. Marchant said today that it was hoped by all concerned that the members of the board would come to an agreement on Monday night, so that an election would not be necessary to decide the matter. Under the state law there must be unanimity of the board or an election will be held to decide the questions at issue.

The chief objection to the purchase of the Tustin site, it was said, is the fact that the land is held at about $4,000 an acre.

Some of those opposed to the Tustin site have suggested that a great saving could be effected by the purchase of outlying property. Those favoring the Tustin site have strongly urged the necessity of building the school in a central locality.

Among the sites under consideration is a ten-acre tract owned by Charles Bowman and located on the Laguna road, near the Newport road. While two sites on First street in the district, it was said today that those favoring the First street sites had cast their lot with those who urged the board to purchase the Sam Tustin acreage.

May Be Big Factor

This fact, according to Marchant and other residents, may prove the deciding factor when the board meets Monday night to give the subject final consideration. The high school board has not yet received the cash from the sale of the bonds, but this is expected by Thursday, at the least, and it is believed that by Monday night the way will be cleared for final action.

Practically all the residents in the district are agreed that the school should be erected on a state highway, and many were said to feel that if the school were located well out on the Laguna road, it would be too far for the Tustin pupils to walk and many would have to provide their own transportation.

Other tracts under consideration include the C. S. Hubbard tract, below Red Hill; two sites on First street, and two tracts owned by William Hatch and T. S. Fink, on the Laguna road, near the Newport road. The trustees are seeking a twenty-acre tract to cost around $50,000.

ROTARIANS SEEKING ATTENDANCE RECORD

Santa Ana Rotary club is out after a world record in attendance, Long Beach Rotary club, for what is known as Class C, in which class the minimum membership of a club is fifty, holds the record with eight consecutive meetings in which 100 per cent of its membership was present. Last Tuesday was Santa Ana's sixth meeting. Today all of the members of the club were present excepting one, and he, it is expected, will visit some other Rotary club this week and complete his attendance for the week. That will make

BLOODGOOD HEAD OF SANTA ANA REALTY BOARD

At the annual meeting of the members of the Santa Ana Realty board held today at noon at James' cafe Freeman H. Bloodgood was chosen to succeed Everett A. White as president of the organization.

Other officers elected were as follows: First vice-president, Lew H. Wallace, Newport Beach; second vice-president, S. J. Selway; treasurer, F. C. Pope, and secretary J. C. Wallace, the latter two having been re-elected.

Among the features of the meeting was an address by Prof. J. A. Cranston, city superintendent of schools, who spoke on the need of carrying the proposed $250,000 school bond issue. The board at the close of Professor Cranston's talk recorded a unanimous endorsement of the proposed bonds, stating that the members would assist individually in getting out as large a vote as possible.

Report of Treasurer Pope showed that receipts during 1921 amounted to $2,242.70, with disbursements $2,157.47, leaving a credit balance in the treasury of $114.95. The report also showed that fifty-two members have paid membership fees in advance while twenty-four members are slated as in arrears.

Everett A. White was elected delegate to the state convention of realtors to be held in San Francisco January 19, 20 and 21, with L. J. Carden selected as alternate.

Members who signified their intention of attending were Freeman H. Bloodgood, White, L. L. Shaw, N. E. Wray, C. N. Grace, A. B. Rouselle, F. C. Pope and C. W. Holcombe. It is expected others will attend. Brief addresses were made by a number of members on various subjects.

PLAN TO EXTEND DELIVERY ZONE FOR EXPRESS

The American Railway company will extend its free delivery service in Santa Ana about March 1, in the opinion of J. T. Carter, representative here, based on information received by him this morning.

He has advised from his company to the effect that the company has made application to the state railroad commission for permission to increase the district of free delivery. The permit first must be granted by the commission and then publication must be made for thirty days, indicating possibility of the new service being instituted March 1.

Under the enlargement of the territory the delivery zone will be north to Twentieth street and south to Bishop street, between the Santa Fe tracks on the east and the 1200 block on the west, except that south of the high school the west limit will be Ross street.

HARVEY IMPROVING
CANNES, Jan. 10.—Ambassador George Harvey, who was injured in an automobile collision yesterday, was reported to be considerably improved today. Harvey suffered from bruises.

seven weeks for the local club. At today's meeting two new members were received into the club. They were Joseph Skidmore of Laguna Beach and H. E. Dye of Santa Ana, the county Boy Scout executive.

The combination of names, "Skidmore and Dye," caused a good deal of merriment at today's gathering. Attorney A. W. Rutan presided at today's meeting, which, under his subtle direction, took a turn into an investigation into retail marketing. In this investigation a good deal of levity was mingled with serious statements concerning present day costs. Among the speakers were C. H. Chapman, E. P. McFadden, R. G. Tuthill, A. H. Paterson, F. G. Beissel and E. E. Jahraus.

Says Realtor Owes Duty to Community and To His Patrons

EVERETT A. WHITE

The realtor is a public figure and his obligations are exacting, declared Everett A. White, for the past year president of the Santa Ana Realty board, in an address delivered at the annual meeting of the board held at James' cafe at noon today. Extracts from his address follow:

"The Santa Ana Realty board was organized to secure co-operation among the real estate dealers of the city and to elevate the calling to the dignity and honor given all other reputable professions.

"The board also is formed to secure to its members the benefits of united effort and concentrated power, to the end that evils and annoyances that frequently occur in the business of real estate brokerage shall be corrected; promote good fellowship and fair dealing and to protect both its members and the general public from irresponsible, unprincipled and dishonest transactions and dealers in real estate.

"Promoting and fostering the enactment of legislation for the protection of the broker, property rights and dealings pertaining thereto, are other objects of the organization.

"This board stands for co-operation in those things that may tend to the upbuilding, beautifying of the city, and the promoting of civic improvements and home ownership.

"A membership in the Santa Ana Realty board means that the individual is connected with a living force working constantly to increase both business and prestige of the individual dealer. In plain business terms, by such membership the individual dealer makes more money and occupies a higher position in his community because of it.

"All are familiar with the achievements of the board the past twelve months. In passing I want to mention a few, as follows:

"Originating and bringing to Orange county mark the first annual summer outing of real estate dealers, a feature that created thousands of lines of publicity for Santa Ana and Orange county.

"In auguration of weekly luncheons, adoption of uniform listing cards and schedule of commission in conformity with those used in all other California cities.

"For these achievements, and the success of your board, I take no honor; credit is due our efficient secretary, loyal support of the executive board, officers and co-operation of the members.

"For our further success, I suggest that we adopt the slogan, 'Constructive Work, Co-operation and Service.'

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OFFICERS ALL RE-NAMED

With all of its directors and officers re-elected, the First National bank today completed its annual meeting. Stockholders of the California National bank were casting their ballots for directors today, the polls having opened at 10 o'clock this morning with 3 p. m. set as the closing hour. Polls at the American National opened at 1 p. m. and were to close at 3.

The First National conducted its election at a meeting at which 1477 shares of the 5500 issued were represented in person and 2,098.5 by proxy. The committee passing on proxies was H. C. Dawes, C. F. Smith and N. A. Beals. A. J. Crookshank, president of the bank, presided, and W. B. Williams, cashier, was secretary.

The financial statement of the bank as taken from the bank's report to the controller December 31, was read, showing the bank to be in very strong financial condition, the total resources being $3,595,814.24, and in every way in a condition satisfactory to the stockholders.

Directors re-elected by the stockholders are:

C. D. Ball, George S. Briggs, A. J. Crookshank, C. S. Crookshank, W. A. Huff, George W. Minter, W. G. Mitchell, C. E. Parker, Charles A. Riggs, Robert M. Simon, George S. Smith, W. B. Williams and A. F. Zaiser.

Following the meeting of stockholders the directors re-elected officers as follows:

A. J. Crookshank, president; W. A. Huff, George S. Briggs, C. S. Crookshank, vice-presidents; W. B. Williams, Cashier; A. F. Zaiser, J. H. Turner, F. M. Robinson, H. L. Hanson, C. L. Cotant, assistant cashiers.

AUTOIST IN LIQUOR CASE BEING TRIED

Dal Laliburte, Fullerton rancher, went on trial today before a jury in Judge Z. B. West's department of the superior court, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Brief progress has been made with the trial this afternoon, a large portion of the day being occupied with selecting a jury, which was completed as follows:

W. H. Keiser, R. E. Larter, Joel Proctor, Guy Williams, Congdon R. Cook, S. E. Andrews, J. M. Miller, R. M. Jackson, Mrs. Lillie Ritter, Henry Loftin, Mrs. Agnes E. Carroll and A. B. Tifany.

Questioning of the jurors was directed chiefly toward ascertaining their attitude toward liquor and its use, as well as their possible connections with societies or organizations opposed to the use of intoxicants.

City Marshal Arthur Ellis and Police Officer Barnhill, of Fullerton, who arrested Laliburte on E. Chapman avenue, Fullerton, October 31, testified today regarding the arrest. Other witnesses were expected to be called by Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley in his attempt to show that Laliburte was under the influence of liquor when taken by the officers from the wheel of his car.

Laliburte was defended at the trial by Bishop and Wellington, Santa Ana attorneys.

GIVEN $131 DAMAGES RESULT OF COLLISION

John N. Anderson, of Santa Ana, was today given judgment for $131 against A. B. Watson, proprietor of the Crown Stage lines, when his damage suit for $200 was tried before Justice J. B. Cox.

Anderson, former state senator and present state inheritance tax appraiser, based his claim upon personal injuries and damages to his automobile, received in a collision with a stage car on West Chapman avenue, near the junction with North Main street west of Orange April 22, 1921. He claimed $126 damages to the car, $70 for loss of its use and $100 for personal injuries.

ANAHEIM MAN ESCAPES INJURY WHEN HIS CAR TURNS OVER IN WRECK

Frank Duff, 150 East Center street, Anaheim, escaped injury when a Ford car he was driving struck a trailer and overturned on the state highway, two miles south of Anaheim, according to a report made today at the sheriff's office by J. V. Bird, 1005 East Broadway, Anaheim, owner of the trailer.

The Ford was considerably damaged, Bird reported, his trailer also bearing marks of the collision. Bird claimed that he had turned his car into a driveway to the D. B. Gregory place and that the trailer had cleared the boulevard when the Ford struck it. He declared that the Ford belonged to the Orange county Rock and Gravel company.

Other witnesses of the accident named by Bird were Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, E. W. Lord, 295 North Bavaria street, Orange, and Leo Oehlke, of Orange.

HIGH SCHOOL P.-T. A. MEETING INTERESTS

Much interest was today expressed in Parent-Teachers association circles in the program to be presented at the art room of the high school next Thursday at 3 p. m. under the auspices of the high school auxiliary of the association.

A. M. McDermott will preside and after a selection by the Boys' Glee club of the high school under the direction of Miss Lena Shepard, L. L. Beeman will offer an explanation of the social science courses.

The program will then be in the hands of members of the high school and junior college faculty who teach the branches exemplified, and who, with the aid of pupils selected from the student body, will elucidate the subjects for the members present.

"Citizenship, a Project, and City Planning" will be discussed by E. J. Hummel of the history and citizenship department, assisted by Miss Lizetta Phillips, after which Elmer Worthy of the department of law and public speaking, will speak on "The Value of the Study of Citizenship," with Charles Gray assisting him in the demonstration.

Miss Josephine Arnoldy of the Latin department will speak on "Ancient History," assisted by Miss Alice Richards of the student body, after which Russell Rowland will give a piano solo.

The second part of the program will open with a talk on "Modern European History" by Leon McMullen of the history department, assisted by Walter Wilson, while "United States History" will be handled by Miss Harriet Mercer and Maxine Wilson. A. B. Gardner will treat of his branch, "Civics," with William Anderson aiding him in presenting his points, while L. L. Beeman, head of the history department, will speak on "Economics," with Gerald Mitchell demonstrating the subject.

MEXICAN, 20, VICTIM OF MYSTERY ATTACK

While authorities here today began an intensive search for his alleged assailants, Jose Morano, 20, a Mexican of 1039 Logan street, lay at the point of death at the county hospital, suffering from terrible bruises, declared to have been inflicted by three unknown assailants New Year's night.

It was not until young Morano was brought to the hospital at noon yesterday that the alleged attack upon him became known.

Morano and another young Mexican were walking along Lincoln street on the night in question when three other Mexicans accosted them and asked them to have a drink. Upon Morano's refusal, it was said, the three set upon Morano, kicking him in the face and terribly beating him. Four of his teeth were knocked out.

Morano is unconscious. He is suffering from what was described as a terrible infection of the face. His condition is such that his recovery is improbable.

SCHOOL DISTRICT SHIFTS ASKED IN PETITION

Petitions to change the boundary lines of three school districts in the county were filed this afternoon through Attorneys Rutan and Head, of Santa Ana, representing the districts concerned, which are Newport Beach, San Joaquin and the Harper-Fairview districts.

One of the petitions seeks to enlarge the Newport Beach district by taking from the San Joaquin district that portion of the old Newport Beach district which lies outside the corporate limits of the city. A portion of the Harper-Fairview district adjacent to Newport Beach would be transferred to the latter district under the other petition.

Commenting here today upon the proposal to change the boundary lines of three school districts in the county, R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent of schools, said that the movement was designed to restore legally to Newport that part of the school district not included in the original incorporation of that city in 1906.

Mitchell said that the court action did not contemplate taking away from the other districts any part of the territory to which they were rightfully entitled, but was intended merely to make the Newport district co-equal with other districts by annexation, so that there would be no legal hitch in the event bond issues were voted.

The plan was merely intended as a rearrangement of the districts, Mitchell said, so that the bonding companies would not turn down possible bond issues in later years through the medium of legal technicalities.

FREED ON CRIMINAL CHARGE BUT ONLY TO FACE ANOTHER JUDGE

R. L. Walker, discharged in superior court, where he was being tried on a charge of embezzlement, found himself facing re-arrest under a charge of violating the motor vehicle laws and was forced to pay a fine of $5 before being at liberty, it was learned today.

Following his discharge from the embezzlement proceedings late yesterday, Walker was immediately taken before Justice J. S. Howard at Anaheim, where he was found guilty of the traffic violation, and fined.

The embezzlement charge was dismissed by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams after Walker's attorney had shown that D. J. Andrews, Anaheim furniture dealer, who appeared as the complaining witness, had previously filed a civil action on account of the $258 worth of furniture which he accused Walker of having embezzled. Under the law, the civil action automatically prevented subsequent criminal prosecution.

THANKS

to those who helped me make Saturday, the opening day of my unloading sale, the biggest day in the history of this store. Only sorry we couldn't handle them better on account of lack of space, but have done the best under the circumstances. Now while the sale is yet to last for several days, some of the lines are getting somewhat broken up and would advise those who haven't as yet been here, to get busy. And again as a little reminder, my reputation is behind everything you buy and money back if not to your entire satisfaction.

SAYS OBEDIENCE BY CHILD WILL FEATURE MAN

"The greatest responsibility a parent has to his or her child is to teach that child obedience to law—the law of the home and the law of the land."

This declaration was made yesterday afternoon by Dr. Charles E. Barker of Chicago at the mothers' and daughters' meeting at the Temple theater, and was repeated last night at the fathers' and sons' meeting.

These meetings were held under the auspices of the Rotary club of Santa Ana. Every seat in the theater was taken at both meetings, and the speaker was listened to with tense interest.

"The man who buys liquor in violation of the federal law is a traitor to his flag," declared Dr. Barker, in his evening address. "Why do we have all this lawlessness? Because parents have been allowing their children to grow up with disrespect for constraint."

"In the past two years, you men who have been bragging how you get your quart of white mule, you are to blame. For breaking the prohibition law, you are just as guilty in the eyes of the constitution as though you stole money or forged a check. You are as much a traitor to the flag as was Benedict Arnold. I don't care whether you like a law, so long as the law is on the books it is your duty as an American citizen to support that law."

Don't Spare Rod. "Don't be afraid to punish a child. Nobody can transgress the laws of God, of nature, without sooner or later suffering punishment. Why, then, expect to let a child grow up free from punishment? I don't mean for you to beat him on every opportunity. Far from it. Let the punishment fit the offense. Don't punish in anger, but don't forget to punish. Punish a boy in kindness and reason and he will grow up to say, 'Dad, I'm glad you had the nerve to do it.' 'The happiest men in the world today are the men who have learned to obey the law.'"

In all of his lectures here yesterday, Dr. Barker laid emphasis upon the dangers of "spoiling" by young folk.

Advice to Mothers. His closing advice to the mothers girls yesterday afternoon was given graphically and forcefully under four headings:

"First," said he, "mother, your responsibility to your daughter is to see that she does not go out alone at night riding around the country in an automobile with a boy, no matter whose boy that is, no matter how sure you feel you know him. "Second," there are certain types of dancing that are absolutely pernicious, such as cheek to cheek dancing. This kind of dancing mars what otherwise may be classed by many of us as a pleasant and wholesome exercise.

"Third, see that your daughter avoids the sex movie. That kind of movie gives her an entirely false idea of life and its relationships.

"Fourth, mothers, see to it that when you let your daughters go out to social affairs or elsewhere that they are modestly and decently dressed." Dr. Barker laid great stress upon the two words, "modestly" and "decently."

Explain Mysteries. To the parents at each of the meetings, Dr. Barker made a plea in favor of giving children through their parents answers to questions concerning some of the things of life that to children are mysteries. He said he believed that certain things should be told a child by a parent rather than have the child learn those same things in an unpleasant and vulgar way from others.

In his addresses Dr. Barker laid great emphasis upon the responsibility that the boy or girl of today has toward future generations. The advisability of every child growing up healthy and strong, free from the taints of disease, was pointed out clearly. In his afternoon lecture, the speaker laid emphasis upon the advisability of girls and women taking regular exercise.

MUSICAL GENIUS DISCERNIBLE AT AGE OF THREE

Previous announcements that the concert by Harold Bauer, noted pianist, would be given next Thursday night were erroneous, Clarence A. Gustin, president of the Santa Ana Musical association, stated today. The concert is to be given next Friday night.

"I am well aware that pianoforte technique is generally regarded as the basis of successful achievement," Harold Bauer, who will give a recital at the high school next Friday evening under the auspices of the Santa Ana Musical association, said in a recent interview. "Pianists must of course have technique; but when its cultivation is taken up as something apart from expression, pupils cannot fail to miss certain goals."

"If I were permitted to test my theory in training a child," continued Bauer, "I should at the outset wish to assure myself that the pupil had extraordinary gifts. This could be definitely established at the age of three or four years. The first training would be to cultivate the ear sense through the association of ideas with feelings, and before permitting the little candidate to go near the instrument. Practicing gestures to convey emotions is one method of developing capacity for expression."

Technique vs. Expression.

"Pursuing the child's training along these lines we would quickly take up the study of some compositions. Most great composers have written music sufficiently simple for children. Instead of insisting upon certain exercises to develop technique, I should go against all accepted technical methods, for I cannot believe that systems which aim to enable the pianist to play all notes alike are best. The piano, unlike other instruments does not permit expression when an individual note is sounded, and because of its limitations the basis of expression must be variety. Technique has no reason for being until expression has first taught what it is that one wishes to do. I do not mind the study of technique after the expressive ideas have been found. But to utilize the teachings of one school which insists that the fingers be raised high, or of another which advocates practicing with the fingers close to the keys, seems to me of secondary importance."

Course For Student.

"Presupposing that my child pupil gradually acquires a rudimentary schooling sufficient to begin a composition, I should play the piece and strive to cause my charge to imitate what I did in my interpretation, and I should take care that my interpretation was based on the mental picture described by the child upon hearing the work. A knowledge of musical notation at this stage would not be necessary, for the little student should rely for the time being exclusively on the brain impressions recorded through the hearing sense. After two or three years of such training the technique would grow normally and rightly, and the development would proceed with individual musical expressiveness and permit adaptation to the peculiar needs of such composition. Accompanying such development would be the practice of improvisation which would add to the pupil's musical imagination and general resources."

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

Read This Letter from Mrs. W. S. Hughes

Greenville, Del.—"I was under the impression that my eldest daughter had some internal trouble as ever since the first time her sickness appeared she had to go to bed and even had to quit school once for a week. I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound myself so I gave it to her and she has received great benefit from it. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish, as I cannot say too much about what your medicine has done for me and for my daughter. Mrs. W. S. HUGHES, Greenville, Del. Mothers and oftentimes grandmothers have taken and have learned the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So they recommend the medicine to others. The best test of any medicine is what it has done for others. For nearly fifty years we have published letters from mothers, daughters, and women, young and old, recommending the Vegetable Compound. They know what it did for them and are glad to tell others. In your own neighborhood are women who know of its great value. Mothers—daughters, why not try it?"

LIMIT TAX QUERIES TO CONCRETE CASES

Quoting John P. Carter, collector for the sixth district of California, department of internal revenue, E. B. Burns, deputy collector for Orange county, today stated:

"Requests are being received daily for rulings and advice upon abstract cases or prospective transactions involving questions of income tax and profits liability. These requests are so numerous and the insistence on prompt action so great that it seems advisable at this time definitely to outline the bureau's policy which will govern the consideration of these requests."

"The revenue acts of 1918 and 1921 depart widely at many points from prior law or practice, and have given rise to new questions of such importance, complexity, and number that the resources of the bureau are no more than adequate to advise taxpayers promptly of their present liabilities arising out of past transactions. It is impossible to answer every question which the invention or ingenuity of the inquirer may devise without neglecting the fundamental duty of determining tax liability upon the basis of actual happenings. Under these circumstances, the administrative necessity is obvious of giving precedence over abstract or prospective cases to actual cases in which the taxpayer desires to know what are his immediate liabilities under the law."

"It will be the policy of the bureau not to answer any inquiry except under the following circumstances: "The transaction must be completed and not merely proposed or planned."

"The complete facts relating to the transaction, together with abstracts from contracts, or other documents, necessary to present the complete facts, must be given."

"The names of all the real parties interested (not 'dummies' used in the transactions) must be stated regardless of who presents the question, whether attorney, accountant, tax service or other representative."

Indian Music Featured In Program Presented
Before Music Section

Wide in scope and unusual in presentation was the subject of "Development of Indian Music" presented yesterday by Mrs. J. C. Hamil before members of the Music section of Ebbl club.

Nearly half a hundred members of the section gathered at the home of Mrs. T. A. Wimbler, 207 East Ninth street, to hear Mrs. Hamil's paper which she opened with the statement that "Poetry, music and dancing have a common starting point, in rhythm," enlarging upon the peculiar rhythm which characterizes the primitive music of the Indian race.

The chant of the North American Indian, according to Mrs. Hamil, is a peculiar medium between speech and song and the quaint strains which make these non-musical chants were illustrated by Mrs. H.
N. Hayes who gave one of the chants of the Ojibwa, which have Mrs.
Hamil chose as being representative of the highest degree of intellectuality to be found among the Indians.

Melody, as we understand it, was sacrificed to the sense of rhythm, and according to Mrs. Hamil, a peculiar fact in connection with the chants, was that the voice would be in one pronounced rhythm while the accompanying beat of the drum or the rattle would be carried on in an entirely different one.

The drums, rattles, whistles and flutes which made up the musical instruments of the race, were all touched upon, the flute being given special mention because of its place in the tribal life as an aid to bushful lovers.

Hidden in the underbrush at daybreak, the lover would sound a signal to the maiden of his heart, that he was awaiting her and was declaring his love. Her acceptance of his suit was shown by her joining him in response to the pleading of his flute.

Mrs. Hamil hoped to have the illustration of this point in her talk given by means of a flute, but was unable to procure one and so Mrs.
Hayes sang "Turk's Lullaby" and "By the Waters of Lake Minnetonka" to the piano accompaniment of Miss Marie Hamil with violin obligato by Miss Velma Clemm as a thoroughly satisfactory substitute.

Continuing her talk, Mrs. Hamil stated that according to their belief the Indians were highly religious, and wove the dance into their most deeply religious observances, as an expression of emotions.

Illustrative of the point, Miss Katherine Van Doren gave a beautiful dance, to the accompaniment of Miss Elizabeth Farlow. This was a charming feature and elicited such applause that Miss Van Doren gave an encore dance and at the close of the program, consented to repeat her Indian dance, to the pleasure of all present.

The harmonizing of Indian music, with Alice Fletcher one of the first in the field, and other composers to follow, was touched upon and Mc-Donald, "Indian Lodge" was beautifully played by Miss Hamil who acted as accompanist for all of the soloists.

Fred Wilde sang "My Doeskin Blanket," by Cadman, and the words of which by Cecil Fanning were of special interest in view of the fact that Fanning will appear before a Santa Ana audience as a number of the Musical association course. Mr.
Wilde also sang "Her Shadow" from Cadman's opera, "Shanewis," the song of the Princess Tsianin in the Ojibwa opera. Mr. Wilde, like those preceding him on the program, was delighted and was followed by Jack Langley who brought the program to a close with Dvorak's arrangement of the "Indian Love Song" as a violin number, wonderfully played.

The delights of the program were then discussed over tea and wafers and Mrs. Hamil was congratulated upon her achievement of such a particularly pleasing effect gained in the short time of one week's preparation.

Ebell Travelers

Unusual highways and byways of Mexico were traversed yesterday by members of the First Travel section of Ebbl club, meeting with Mrs.
Charles Kendall at her home on Cypress avenue.

Points far from the beaten path were hunted out and explored via well written descriptions carefully collected by the members of the section who love to explore the out-of-the-way corners of the world, and the places that the ordinary travelers of the Cook's tours seldom even know about, or see.

During the social hour, as the Travelers enjoyed the refreshments daintily served by the hostess, they also enjoyed her humorous account of a recent motor trip to San Francisco, taken during the stormy period, and attended by many adventures, near-dangerous and otherwise.
Those present at the pleasant affair included in addition to the hostess, Mrs. Kendall, Mesdames A.
W. Ames, J. W. Bishop, J. P. Baumgartner, Mary Heathman, William Tubbs, I. W. Van Cleave, William Smart, Linn Shaw and H. C. Dawes.

Altar Society

The Altar society and ladies of the congregation of St. Joseph's Catholic church will be entertained on Thursday afternoon next at the home of Mrs. J. A. Maag on Fairhaven avenue.

Mrs. Maag has been ill for some months and her many friends will be glad to welcome her in their midst again.

Ebell Society

Interior Decoration will be the subject to be presented before the members of the Ebell Society meeting in regular session on Thursday afternoon, January 12, at the home of Mrs. Roy Hall, 420 South Birch street.

SEDGWICK POST, G. A. R.

Away back in the stormy days of eighteen-sixty-four when brother fought with brother in the dreadful Civil War, the gallant boys in Union blue with spirit brave and gay, upheld the starry banner of the good old U. S. A. Now with those battles ended and the conflict in the past—with North and South united beneath one starry flag at last, the boys in blue with reminiscence about those days of war, whenever they meet their brothers at the Sedgwick G. A. R.

Gay doings mark these meetings, tales of days so long ago,— of the funny things of war-time, just as well as of the woe,— of romances of the Southland when some southern family's pride, o'ercame her sense of hatred and became a "Yankee's" bride.

O. H. Maryatt, Judge Langley, Comrade Sutton are enrolled there among the honored members of the nation's force of old; G.
J. Mosbaugh, W. J. Liser, P. E. Newman answer "here," when the Post's roll call is sounded, and in this official year Comrade Huntington, as commander is the Post's official head, following paths where F. M. Grigsby, so efficiently has led.

Loyal, ever to the Union in declining days of life, just as when—mere beardless striplings,—led by sound of drum and fife, with the battle cry of freedom and a starry banner bright, they marched to fields of battle to uphold the cause of right.

Music Teachers

Opening the new year most auspiciously with the accession of several new members, the Music Teachers association of Orange county, held a highly interesting meeting last night at the home of Miss Nell Isaacson.

The program arranged for the evening was in the hands of the Community trio, consisting of Ollimae Enlow Matthews, violinist, Clarence Gustlin, pianist and Edward Burns,
"cellist." Their selection was from Moszkowsky's Suite, Opus 71, and the splendid rendering brought forth the enthusiastic applause of the assembled musicians, an applause responded to with Saint Saens' "The Swan."

The addition of Mr. Gustlin to the trio in place of Earl Fraser, resigned, is a matter of much interest to admirers of that organization.
Mr. Gustlin's ability is too well known to admit of any conjectures as to his place in the organization.
Probably no other man in the community has so great a place in the affections of music loving Santa Ana, and his brilliant performances and comprehensive musical knowledge are only equalled by his constant efforts to arouse and elevate the musical taste of the community.

His successes in this line have long been recognized by the many brilliant artists who have appeared in Santa Ana through his efforts and the interest he has aroused.

Miss Cross, national representative of the Victor record company, was present also, last night, and talked interestingly on the drive soon to be inaugurated by the music federation, to obtain records for use in rural schools. Miss Cross told of the manner in which these records were to be used by the teachers, and aroused much enthusiasm among the members for the success of the drive.

Among important matters of business discussed was the question of affiliation with the state association and steps will be taken at once to bring this about.

A project of Miss Lena Catherine Shepard, the president, to institute an annual contest among high school pupils of the county, met with much favor, when she explained her plan, which is to institute the contest of offering cups to victors in musical events, for choruses, mixed and otherwise, glee clubs, orchestras and solo numbers. The association will perfect the plans for this at once, and institute the contests at an early date.

Coming events of the Santa Ana Musical association concert course were recalled, the Harold Bauer concert on Friday night, January 13, the appearance of Cecil Fanning on March 7, and the Philharmonic orchestra on April 18. It was noted that the price reduction on season tickets was now in effect.

Pursuant to a change in date of meeting, the association will meet in February and all succeeding months, on the night of the fourth Tuesday in the month, in order not to interfere with the meetings of the county Choral Union.

Dress Designing,
Topic to Be Presented At High School Assembly

Of wide interest to all members of Every Girl's club and kindred organizations of the Santa Ana high and junior high schools, was the announcement made today that Every Girl's club of junior high school had been instrumental in bringing to this city, Madame Louise de Giffene of Los Angeles who will talk on dress designing, what to wear and what not to wear, and other topics of interest to woman-kind, at the high school auditorium, Wednesday, January 18, at 2:40 p. m.

Madame de Giffene is associated with Mrs. Sooy, head of the department of costume and design of the southern branch of the state university, and will bring with her, costumes to use in the demonstration accompanying her talk.

Models will be chosen from the members of the high and junior high school groups, and attendance is not limited to pupils alone, but a special invitation is extended to the mothers and friends of the girls to be present.

Madame de Giffene was at the Teachers' college in San Francisco last summer at the time Miss Hazel Bemus, head of the art department of junior high school, was there, and the association at that time was largely instrumental in bringing the talented speaker here at this date which is just at the close of the winter series of talks along such lines, which she presents at the high schools and university in Los Angeles.

Missionary Society

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold the regular monthly meeting at the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

Mrs. E. B. Smith will have charge of the program, the topics of which will be "Working Dollars" and "China."

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Community house.

All members are urged to be present as they will complete the plans for Missionary Day next Sunday when the ladies will have charge of the morning service.

Sons of Veterans

Frank A. Carpenter of Los Angeles was present at G. A. R. hall last night to act as installing officer for the Sons of Veterans in their public installation exercises held in conjunction with the Daughters of Veterans.

The installation followed that of the Daughters with a short musical program intervening between the two. The presence of an orchestra which dispensed favorite, old-time airs added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Among important matters of business discussed was the question of affiliation with the state association
and steps will be taken at once to bring this about.

Program Announced for P.-T. A. Fathers' Night

When the members of the McKinley Parent-Teacher association meet at the kindergarten room of Washington school, Thursday night to help celebrate "fathers' night," they will be entertained by a program arranged under the supervision of A. V. Napier.

At 7:30 will be a short business session to be followed by the open-number, a song by Elmer Heidt, after which Attorney Walter Eiden will give a fifteen minute talk on the school bond election.

Eleanor Young Elliott will give a monologue, Robert Brown will sing, and Roland Dye, county scout executive, will speak on the work done by the Boy Scouts of America.
This talk will have an illustration in the signalling and first aid demonstrations to be presented by a local scout troop and the evening's program will end with community singing of patriotic songs.

THE "DIRECT ACTION" GAS RANGE EQUIPPED WITH THE LORAIN OVEN HEAT REGULATOR

Many people prefer "trying out" a thing before they invest their money in it. It's a good way to determine the suitability of a "Direct Action" gas range and the Lorain Oven Heat Regulator to your cooking needs. It's a satisfactory way to demonstrate this remarkable appliance yourself.

The LORAIN Oven Heat Regulator is a device which regulates the flow of gas into the oven of your range, so that you may measure the exact heat required for the cooking of various foods, there being 44 selective temperatures.
By using the regulator, you may cook a whole meal in the oven at one time, without attention, without any preheating of viands, since the one economical amount of gas is used to boil, bake and roast simultaneously.

Only by seeing the "Lorain" at work can you really appreciate the remarkable savings it makes—its great advantages. We offer you that opportunity in our 30-DAY FREE TRIAL proposition. Thirty days in which to make any test you desire before you buy.
May we send one out to your home?

'HI-Y' TO STAGE PROGRAM TONIGHT

GARDEN GROVE, Jan. 10.—The local Hi-Y, Y. M. C. A. boys will put on a set of slides entitled, "The Other Wise Man," by Van Dyke, at the M. E. church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The slides are especially suited for young people and are beautifully colored. There will be also a reading by Mrs. Jack Jentges. The local high school orchestra will render some beautiful selections.

A silver offering will be accepted at the door. The Chamber of Commerce held its regular monthly meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building last evening. Miss Irene Jacques entertained the following guests with a three-course dinner Friday evening: Miss Dorethea Cavanaugh, Mrs. G. Barbour and daughter, Miss Frances; Miss Mabel Woodworth, Miss Helen Hearst, Miss Grace Dryden, Mrs. Jules Jacques of San Diego, and Mrs. M. Jacques and family.

The following attended a meeting of the Relief corps in Santa Ana Thursday afternoon: Mr. and Mrs. George Rolfe, Mrs. J. T. Watson, Mrs. Dallas and Mrs. K. S. Hendricks.

Miss Esther Anderson spent the weekend in Los Angeles. Miss Frances Barbour is enjoying a visit from her mother, who arrived here last week from St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Jules Jacques and baby are spending two weeks at the home of Mrs. Mary Jacques.

BREA

BB THE REV. W. E. SPICER
BREA, Jan. 10.—Oliver Thornton, secretary of the Brea post, American Legion, lost his brother in France. The body was returned and was buried at Artesia Saturday. The Brea Legion received the body from the train at Fullerton on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. F. Schweitzer is rehearsing with the Fullerton Ebell club ladies for a play to be presented by the Fullerton club.

Brea cabin boys played basketball with the Fullerton Methodist boys Thursday night.

One of the local club's best players, Earnie Everett, is prohibited from playing except on high school scheduled games.

Mrs. J. H. Scott was called to Seattle by the death of a nephew. She will not return for several weeks.

Little Jack Salvason calmly informed his parents that he had invited company to celebrate his birthday and would mamma please bake jelly cakes and make ice cream.

"Gracious, Jack, how can I; we are so busy and it is only tomorrow. Who did you invite?"

"O, I invited Jimmy and John and Mary and Susie and—and—I told them to invite all the others." (Society editor, please take notice. This is unique in the annals of an exclusive set.)

Mrs. Salvason borrowed the neighbors' yards and sent out an S. O. S. for help, and it was well for her that she had good neighbors and had established something more than a speaking acquaintance with them.

The Brea Christian church attended prayer meeting and baptismal services with the Fullerton Christian church Thursday night. Ala Ford, of Brea, was baptized.

Excessive rains have made the schoolhouse basement untenable for the present. The Chamber of Commerce is hunting for a suitable temporary meeting place.

Wanted, a homeless baby girl, about 5 to 8 years of age.

What is better news than that outside of disarmament and peace on earth?

Opening human hearts and homes to orphans is better than inventing a new gun or making a million. I know where to find the open heart for the homeless girl baby. Do you know the girl?

The city fathers have beaten Mr. Bruce and the lecture of Chief Scott of Los Angeles, to the chemical engine. It is here all painted and ready to run. Now let the fires take a vacation. Nevertheless the fire department of the metropolis has responded with speed and service.

Last night our citizens schooled themselves in the nature and problems of fire protection with correlated questions of insurance, etc., under a competent teacher.

Mrs. Robert Russell and baby are rapidly recovering from burns recently inflicted in a gas explosion. The gas company has been overhauling leaky pipes, looking to greater safety.

John Sexton, injured in an explosion at the gasoline plant, is able to appear without bandages, and hopes to begin work in two weeks.

BILLIE BURKE IS TO BUILD OWN THEATER

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Miss Billie Burke has announced that an up-town site had at last been obtained where she and her husband, Florenz Ziegfeld Jr., expect to erect a theater of her own. The playhouse, she said, will be of a type similar to Henry Miller's theater, which is looked upon as a model of theatrical construction, except that Miss Burke wants a smaller balcony. The auditorium will be suitable for the interpretation of intimate plays.

Miss Burke contemplates putting in effect the repertoire theater which she has long set her heart upon. She expressed her gratification that after several years of hoping in the face of discouragements her cherished ambition seems to be realized. She intends to give among the first productions a revival of Sheridan's "A School for Scandal."

"I wanted to give it a year ago," she said, "and I hated to give up the idea. Now we see in a flash the way to going through it, though I don't know how the public will receive me in it. But perhaps there'll be some curiosity to see me as Lady Teazle. I have a strong desire to do Ibsen's 'A Doll's House.' It oppresses me whenever I read or study it, and I ask myself if I can really go through with it. Yet it fascinates me always, for it seems so remarkably real."

TWO FILIPINOS DIE IN MANILA DISORDERS

MANILA, Jan. 10.—Two enlisted men of the Philippine constabulary were killed and one seriously wounded when a detachment of constabulary was set upon by a band of Moros at Banisitina, province of Cotabato, according to a telegram of the constabulary headquarters. The attackers escaped with three rifles and a quantity of ammunition. Three detachments of constabulary were sent in pursuit.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS PLEASANT EVENING

YORBA LINDA, Jan. 10.—The Yorba Linda Woman's club is planning a very delightful social affair for its meeting this evening.

Miss Makay, of La Habra, will be the speaker and the program also includes some splendid musical numbers. Following the program cards will be played and dancing enjoyed by those who are so inclined. Each member is entitled to invite two guests and the event is being looked forward to with great interest.

Miss Effie Brown, of Norwalk, who spent the holidays with Mrs. Gardner at her home on Yorba Linda boulevard, has returned to Norwalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selover were visitors in Los Angeles on Thursday.

Miss Marcia Vernon spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting friends in Whittier and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ethel Yerington very delightfully entertained several guests from Anaheim at luncheon on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fietz have moved from Yorba Linda to Riverside so as to be near Mr. Fietz's work.

Mrs. T. B. Welch spent Tuesday in Los Angeles shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haas and sons spent the holidays with River-side relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt Morris entertained guests from Los Angeles for Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Besett and son are moving into one of the bungalows on Front street owned by William Fassel.

Miss Dessa Jepson is visiting with her aunt in Pasadena for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Look were dinner guests of Mrs. Trook's sister and her husband, the Samuel Walkers, at Whittier recently.

The new garage owned and erected by Stanley and Barton is now completed and open for business.

The building is a first-class one and a very fine addition to the town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gilman moved last week into their new home in the Kinsman subdivision.

SACRAMENTO RESCINDS DRINK LICENSE EDICT

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—Members of the city council have voted to rescind their action in refusing to issue licenses to owners of soft drink parlors who have been charged with violating the prohibition law. Thirty-three proprietors of soft drink parlors, who were recently denied licenses, immediately began action to compel the council to grant permits for "the operation of establishments where soft drinks are sold."

$194,629 YEAR FIRE LOSS IN BAKERSFIELD

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 10.—The total fire loss for Bakersfield in 1921 was $194,629, the report of Fire Chief W. E. Van Meter to City Manager Benson shows. Of this, 85 per cent, was covered by insurance. One eight-months-old child was burned to death in a fire in January, 1921, and nine members of the department were injured while on duty during the year.

OVATION GIVEN HOUSE OF DAVID BAND AT YOST

Seldom has an attraction in a local theater met with the spontaneous approval, bestowed upon the famous House of David band of twenty pieces which opened a two-days' engagement last night at the Yost theater as the headliner of the Meiklejohn and Dunn vaudeville road show.

At the conclusion of their performance they were brought back three times—holding up the show to satisfy the demands of an enthusiastic audience that filled the house to its capacity—and they could have kept on playing throughout the remainder of the show hours for their admirers out in front were quite willing. But owing to the backstage demands they took further encore with smiles and bows.

How they can play! Here is the program rendered last night at the first show under the direction of Gustav Ohn: "Karma"; overture, including selections from "Martha," "Zampa" and "Atlantis"; trombone solo, "Say it With Music," by Horace Hannaford, accompanied by the band and by Clarence Bell, cornet soloist; "Wahwah Blues"; "Bimini Bay" and "Wang Wang Blues."

When the curtain rises on their act, the members of the band, attired in blue uniforms and white shoes, stand with their backs to the house to give audience an opportunity to see their long hair. Such beautiful hair it is, too, for the most part! Many expressions of approval were heard from the women in the audience.

During an interval, Bennie Hill, the spokesman of the organization, spoke briefly on the principles of the House of David colony of 2000 people at Benton Harbor, Michigan.

On the same bill is a notable picture, featuring Conway Tearle. It is the first showing anywhere of "After Midnight," in which Tearle plays a dual role and the locale shifts from San Francisco's Chinatown and then to the exclusive residential district. The photography is excellent. Zena Keefe gives good support in the leading feminine role; Macey Harlam, Charlie Pag, Harry Allen and Little Woo Lang, a Chinese girl, give valuable assistance in putting over the atmosphere of the piece. Tearle is giving us the best work he has done for the screen in a long time. In the dual roles of twin brothers he lends some distinctive touches to widely different characterizations.

As for those papers he was to sign, etc., etc.,—does any one who saw the film know what it was all about—in spite of good direction, good acting and excellent photography? Won't some one please write a regular scenario, with human understanding, for Conway Tearle, who is really an excellent actor.

Ed Gambol, juggling comedian; Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Payne in a humorous sketch, "The Drudge," and Jack Rozier and his beautiful white dogs complete the performance, which is to be staged twice tonight, the first show starting a little earlier than usual—about 6:30.

At the West End Starring on a football team, studying seriously and peddling milk in the early hours of the morning to pay college expenses constitute a stiff program, for any student to undertake. Chet Burnett found that he had to give up one of these activities, and so he quit the team, thereby earning the scorn of some of his classmates and of his sweetheart.

Charles Ray portrays the role of Chet Burnett in his latest starring vehicle, "Two Minutes To Go," current at the West End. First National attraction.

Mary Anderson ("Sunshine Mary") is seen as Charlie Ray's leading lady. Other important members of the cast are Lionel Belmore, Lincoln Stedman, Trueman Van Dyke, Gus Leonard, Tom Wilson, Bert Woodruff, Francois Dumas and Philip Dunham.

Meighan at Temple

"A Prince There Was." Thomas Meighan's new picture coming to the Temple tonight, will hold a double attraction for the host of star admirers among film patrons. For Thomas Meighan, the star, is supported by Mildred Harris, former star in Lois Weber productions.

Miss Harris, who is one of the most popular feminine stars of the silver sheet, has an appealing role in the new picture and proves herself a capable leading woman for the "good luck" Paramount star.

At the Princess

Norma Nichols, who supports Larry Semon in "The Bakery," coming to the Princess tonight, is a Santa Ana girl, daughter of J. C. Nichols, who was sheriff of Orange county from January 1, 1895, to January 1, 1899.

Pat O'Malley and Lloyd Whitlock, both with a long list of leading portrayals to their credit, are the principal players who support Miss du Pont, new Universal star, in the screen version of Wilbur Daniel Steele's "Ropes," her second stellar photoplay, entitled "False Kisses," also due at the Princess tonight.

VAUDEVILLE AND BUSINESS WILL BE COMBINED

Members of Santa Ana Post No. 131, American Legion, today were looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to the vaudeville program to be staged in connection with the next meeting of the post in the Legion home here next Thursday night.

According to Commander Maurice Enderle, Thursday night's meeting will be one of the most important held by the post in many months. In addition to passing upon the applications of a number of prospective members, business matters in connection with the meeting of the county post here February 9 will be discussed and arrangements will be completed for welcoming a large number of out-of-town visitors.

At Thursday night's meeting the question of selecting a chaplain for the local post will also be discussed. Although no definite announcement has been made, Commander Enderle said it was more than likely that the Rev. William J. Richards, pastor of the Spurgeon Memorial Methodist church, would be tendered this post.

Among the entertainment features arranged for Thursday night will be the singing of the new American Legion song composed by Carrie Jacobs Bond. This will be supplemented by snappy vaudeville numbers, Enderle said, and the meeting will be concluded with the usual business routine. In view of the fact that this will be the first meeting the local post has held for the past two months, Commander Enderle has urged all members to attend.

An elaborate program will be arranged for the meeting of the county post here in February.

IMPROVEMENT BODY ELECTS OFFICERS

As the result of a meeting held here, J. C. Hamill today was the elected president of the West End Improvement association, an organization of public-spirited citizens which will have as its chief aim the betterment of civic conditions. Other officers elected included:

H. C. Basney, vice president; M. B. Locke, secretary, and W. M. Bray, treasurer.

Addresses were made by a number of those present, including the Rev. H. C. Basney, setting forth the necessity for organized effort to bring about various needed improvements.

Among those who spoke were the following:
S. A. Clark, J. H. Stewart, W. M. Bray, Fred Seifert, Frank Newton, E. M. Waters, E. G. Summers, L. T. Clem, J. C. Hamill and others.

At a meeting of the association, to be held soon, announcement of committees will be made and definite steps will be outlined for the activities of the improvement association. Both men and women are eligible for membership.

WILL REQUEST PERMIT TO BUILD OPEN FIRES

"Declaring that he had previously received a verbal permit from Fire Chief John Luxembourg, to build fires on his property at the corner of First and Sycamore streets, and that unless he were allowed to do so, his business would suffer, W. W. Crawford, blacksmith and welder who Saturday paid a fine of $10 when he was found guilty of building a fire within the city limits, today announced his intention of applying to the city council for a permit.

Crawford was charged with the offense on December 6, but contested the case, which came before City Recorder W. F. Heathman.

"I have never been arrested before, and I am 60 years old," he declared emphatically. "I did not build that fire. It was built by a Mexican living next door. It is, however, necessary for me to build fires to heat large pieces of iron which I cannot heat inside the shop."

30 DAYS FOR WOMAN BUT TERM SUSPENDED

A sentence of thirty days in the county jail had been suspended today by Justice J. B. Cox in the case of a Mexican woman, Pasquala Hernandez, who appeared in court late yesterday and was found guilty of disturbing the peace.

NEWPORT BEACH MEN DENY BOOZE CHARGES UPON ENTERING PLEAS

Preliminary examination of S. C. Hemstreet and Norman Harding, Newport Beach citizens who are charged with violating the liquor laws, is scheduled to be held January 12 at 2 p. m. before Justice Byron Hall at Newport Beach.

Arraigned late yesterday, both men entered pleas of not guilty. Hemstreet at first pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor, but when two additional complaints against him were read, one being for the same offense, another charging him with keeping a place where liquor was sold, he changed his plea to not guilty, saying he wished for more time to consult an attorney.

Harding followed Hemstreet's example and pleaded not guilty to two charges of selling liquor.

The defendants were arrested last Sunday evening by City Marshal J. A. Porter of Newport Beach, Sheriff C. E. Jackson, Under Sheriff E. E. French and Deputy Sheriff R. L. Ballard of Santa Ana. The officers claimed to have found liquor at the residences of both men.

PREDICTS LIONS WILL EAT HAY IN NEW ERA

"This earth shall neither burn up, nor be destroyed, but shall return to its Eden state, yielding seven fold.

"The wolf and the lamb shall lie down together, and the lion, becoming a vegetarian, shall eat straw like an ox.

"This shall continue throughout the seventh day, which in the Lord's time is 1000 years."

These sentiments were expressed here today by Bennie Hill, spokesman and business manager of the House of David colony of 2000 persons at Benton Harbor, Michigan, All of them are vegetarians.

He believes the world is just now entering upon a period of 1000 years, during which there will be no discordant note. He expressed his views in what he terms a "prophecy as related to present conditions." Eventually, however, he believes there will be a great final upheaval of the things of the earth, "an upheaval, in comparison to which the World War is merely a 'drop in the bucket.' After that, with the survival of the fittest, the Israelites, the world will start all over again. The Israelites will form the nucleus of the new peoples of the earth and it will be a world in which there is no death, for Satan, the author of death, shall have been bound to deceive the nations no more, explained Hill, quoting frequently from the Bible to substantiate his statements.

Asked whether the members of the colony invited persons to join them, or whether their converts were volunteers, Hill said:

"They come into the commonwealth of Israel wholly of their own free will, according to the apostolic plan, as given in Acts 2-4, and according to the one family of God."

PLAN COUNTY CLINIC FOR DENTAL MEETING

Orange county dentists will arrange a clinic for the convention of the National Dental association to be held in Los Angeles next July, according to announcement today of Dr. Elliott H. Rowland, of Santa Ana, secretary of the Orange County Dental society.

Drs. Charles V. Doty, Santa Ana; J. E. Waters, Anaheim, and A. H. Tyrrell, Orange, were appointed a committee at a meeting of the society here last night to arrange the details of the clinic.

Last night's session was held at James's cafe and was preceded by a dinner.

Adoption of constitution and by-laws was among the business matters given attention. The first Monday in each month was established as the regular meeting date. Next month's meeting will be held at Orange.

SEVENTEENTH STREET, MAIN TO BROADWAY, NOW GRADED, ROLLED

Grading and rolling of Seventeenth street, between Main and Broadway, had been completed today by the street department, according to report by Edward Dahl, street superintendent. Similar work is to be done on the same street, between Broadway and Ross street. It was expected city equipment would be started on the work late this afternoon or tomorrow.

Ross street, from Washington avenue north to Seventeenth, still is in an almost impassable condition, due to the street having been plowed before the heavy rains. The ground has not dried sufficiently to permit work by the grader. Dahl expects to have the grading and rolling completed by the end of this week.

DRIVER MISSING SINCE LEAP TO ESCAPE FIRE

An automobile standing in a local garage with its body destroyed by fire and a missing driver, supposed to be George J. Hassell, of Taft, was the culmination today of a sudden and spectacular highway mishap, in which the driver leaped from the flaming car, which crashed against a pole at the West Fifth street crossing of the P. E. railway.

Following his leap from the car, late last evening, the driver appeared with an injured foot at the Community hospital, but his injury was slight and was not treated. He left the hospital almost immediately, without giving his name.

What caused the car, which was a Dort, to catch fire is not known. It was towed to the Edgar and Hays garage, on West Fifth street. Any marks of identification that might have been within the car were destroyed by the flames. The license number was found to be registered to Hassell.

It was stated today at the garage that the driver had not appeared there to inquire concerning the car.

BUSINESS HITS TURNING POINT SAYS EXPERT

Declaring that business is at the turning point, L. H. Bennett, "business doctor" for the California Automobile Trades association, last night told auto tradesmen of the county, in an address at the Temple theater, that they should start to putting their "houses in order" in preparation for the heavy competition that will come with final adjustment of business conditions.

"Ask 'em to Buy" was the subject of a film shown at the conclusion of his address. The picture presented the difference between indifference in salesmanship, which leads to business failure, and successful salesmanship, which brings prosperity.

It brought to the attention of those who viewed it, the possibility of selling accessories as an incident of the conduct of a garage, if the proper effort is made.

The lecture was well attended despite the fact that it did not start until after 8:30, after the departure of the throng assembled to hear the address of Dr. Charles E. Barker.

NO BONDS REQUIRED OF LIQUOR CASE MAN

Darwin Grimes, Crown stage driver, arrested here recently on a federal warrant charging him with the abuse of his authority as a United States immigration officer, and with violation of the Volstead act, was today again at liberty on his personal recognizance, following a decision to that effect by United States Assistant District Attorney Green in district court, at Los Angeles, yesterday afternoon.

Grimes was released on his own surety, when he was arrested, but was ordered to appear before the court yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock with two bondsmen to furnish bail. Evidently arrangements were made in the meantime, for when Grimes came before the official he was again released without surety other than his own.

No date for a hearing on the charges has been set.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. "The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best, not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c

FRATERNAL AID UNION HOLDS INSTALLATION

(Special to The Register)
ORANGE, Jan. 10.—Installation of officers was scheduled for late today at the regular meeting of the Fraternal Aid Union at 1. O. O. F. hall. Following the installation ceremonies dinner was to be served.

Final arrangements for the dinner to be given the Lemon Growers association by the Ladies' Aid society of the Villa Park church were to be made at a meeting set for tomorrow. The meeting will be held at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Jacob Stein.

Miss Margaret Bilz delivered an address on "Americanization" at a W. C. T. U. meeting held late today at the Baptist church. Musical selections were contributed by Mrs. Arthur de Jacoby.

Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, noted Chautauque lecturer, was to be the principal speaker at a gathering of members of the Presbyterian church here at 7:30 p. m., tomorrow. Her address, "Lands Beneath the Southern Cross," will be illustrated with stereoscopic views.

The regular meeting of the Center street Parent Teachers' association was held late today at the Center street school. An interesting program was enjoyed, followed by a social hour, in which a number of mothers of the neighborhood participated.

The Economics department of the Woman's club met late today at the home of Mrs. A. R. Fernald on South Olive street. Mrs. Anna Spray and Mrs. Fernald were joint hostesses. Roll call was answered with new year's resolutions.

ORANGE BIBLE CLASS OPENS NEXT SUNDAY

ORANGE, Jan. 10.—The newly organized Community Bible class will meet next Sunday at 9:30 a. m., in the Colonial theater, according to announcement here today by the Rev. M. L. Pearson.

The class, which was organized following a visit here by the Rev. John T. Houser of Fullerton, will devote its time for the next few weeks in building up a membership which will rank favorably with the class conducted by the Rev. Mr. Houser in Fullerton.

In a recent address, delivered here, the Rev. Mr. Houser told Orange church workers just how he had proceeded in building up a men's Bible class of more than 500. Working along similar lines, the Orange class will conduct a whirlwind campaign and every effort will be made to swell the membership.

The class was organized here with George R. Stoner as teacher; George C. Sherwood, president; H. L. Haynes and D. C. Drake, vice presidents; Charles H. Jeffrey, secretary; treasurer, and Frank Hallman, song leader.

Classes will meet regularly each Sunday at 9:30 a. m., in the Colonial theater.

PREACHER URGES OPTIMISM FOR ALL PERSONS

With a spirit of optimism permeating his entire address during which he declared that the present is an age of epoch-making, the Rev. James A. Geissinger, pastor of the White Temple Methodist church at Anaheim, last night at the First Christian church opened the series of meetings to be held in Santa Ana this week as part of the "week of prayer" service.

"Do not live in a defeated, broken-hearted way," urged the Rev. Mr. Geissinger as he brought his sermon to a close before a large congregation. "Do not live as though you had hardly hoped to succeed. God is on the side of right and with His aid we shall continue to master all difficulties and to surmount all obstacles."

Optimism for all things of the present and the future was sensed throughout the entire address last night. Taking as his text the second verse from the eighth chapter of Romans which reads: "For the law of the spirit of life is Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and death," the Rev. Mr. Geissinger expressed the belief that there was reason for much optimism in those words.

"We are living in the greatest creative moment of history," he said, "and there was never greater spiritual opportunity nor a more rapidly broadening of Christian faith. Along with that is God's call to greater consecration."

"The Apostle Paul wanted to give the peace that came with the life in Christ Jesus to all people he could reach. Suppose that Paul had died before he met Jesus on that road to Damascus. Some say that Paul had a sunstroke on that road. If he did many people of today should have them as well. They would surely go out with a new message in their hearts."

Declaring that he knew it was not popular to talk as he intended, the Rev. Mr. Geissinger said he did not believe those that went about shouting that all civilization would soon be swept into sheets of flame.

"I believe we are facing a period of great financial prosperity," he continued. "The joy of living will be greater than ever because material things such as great modern conveniences are all necessary to the house of God."

AUXILIARY OFFICERS ASSUME DUTIES AND PLAN 1922 PROGRAM

(Special to The Register)
ORANGE, Jan. 10.—With the installation here yesterday of the new officers recently elected to head the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, Mrs. F. L. Chapline, the new president, today was engaged in mapping out a campaign to be followed during the present year.

The installation services were conducted by Mrs. Sidney Saunby, historian of the Santa Ana auxiliary, who was assisted by Miss Louise Tubbs, president of the Santa Ana organization. Mrs. Saunby, who recently attended the state convention, gave an interesting talk and suggested a number of improvements. Miss Julia Magill of Santa Ana also attended the ceremonies. Officers installed included the following:

Mrs. F. L. Chapline, president; Mrs. George Baier, first vice-president; Mrs. John McCarthy, second vice-president; Mrs. O. K. Dean, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Peterkin, chaplain, and Mrs. William O. Hart, historian.

Following the installation, luncheon was served by the women of the Orange auxiliary.

MEMBERS VOTE FOR CHAMBER DIRECTORS

(Special to The Register)
ORANGE, Jan. 10.—Balloting by members of the Chamber of Commerce, which began today, was expected late this afternoon to result in the election of nine directors who will have a prominent part in the Chamber's activities during the present year.

Nominations, which closed last Saturday, include the following: John Adams, George Bates, L. F. Coburn, W. E. Clement, N. T. Edwards, M. Ediste, S. B. Edwards, L. W. Evans, Claude Ellis, Oscar Gunther, Fred A. Grote, Albert G. Heister, John Mellen, Henry C. Mehan, D. C. Pexley, Guy Richards and E. G. Stinson.

Balloting was scheduled to continue from 1 to 7 p. m., after which the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion was to serve an elaborate dinner for the Chamber and its guests. The guest of honor was John P. Carter, collector of internal revenue at Los Angeles, who was booked to deliver the principal address of the evening. Carter, who was to be accompanied by his chief deputy, Major Frank McReynolds, planned to discuss income tax problems.

Prominent Orange county citizens also were expected to address the gathering, according to Secretary H. Warren Nice.

be for pessimism after record of huge gains are shown in Christianity both here and abroad? What excuse is there when facts are published proving that 95 per cent of the young men who entered the American army during the World War had a conception of God.

"I see a resurrection of faith, a passion for clean living and for right living going on around me. People are learning. If you don't believe it recall the Titanic tragedy. Remember the men who went to death saying they had no religion and didn't know how to pray. Yet it's a fact that when the great ship began to settle and there were no lifeboats left, all those on board were able to unite in breathing the prayer, 'Our Father, who art in Heaven.'"

The Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, will be the speaker at tonight's services at the First Methodist church.

TRUSTEES NAME SUCCESSOR TO W. W. HOY

W. G. Knox, employed in the office of County Engineer J. L. McBride, today was the appointed successor to W. W. Hoy, city engineer, whose resignation was presented and accepted at the meeting of the city council last night. The appointment will take effect February 1.

Hoy's resignation was written and was strictly formal. There was no discussion in connection with it by either Hoy or members of the council.

Knox came to Santa Ana a year ago to act as inspector for the city on the pavement work done by Wells and Bessler on West Tenth street, between Main and Broadway.

He has been with the county engineer's office as inspector since completion of the Tenth street job by the city and is now inspector on bridge construction work on Seventeenth street, where the county is building a bridge across the Santa Ana river.

He was city engineer in Salt Lake City from 1913 to 1919, and before coming to Santa Ana was division engineer for the Utah highway commission.

He and his family are residing at 414 West Walnut.

Halt Tract Plans.
Proposed subdivision of the east half of the old Santa Ana race track has been halted by refusal of the council to approve a map of the subdivision. Refusal was explained as due to a situation that would develop in diverting storm waters onto private property to the south where Shelton street opened, as proposed, through the tract south from Fairview avenue.

C. N. Grace, real estate dealer, has represented the tract owners in the proceedings before the council, and last night was advised by the council that the plans could not be approved.

Mike Babylon, who owns the property immediately to the south of the tract, advised that he would hold the city responsible for any damage that might result to his property by reason of storms waters from Santa Ana being thrown onto his lands. He said that he was willing to give a way of way for sewer or water lines through his property and would give ground for a street, providing that drainage could be planned that would insure protection to his ranch. The city would not assume responsibility for this assurance and the subdivision subject is off, for the present at least, so far as the council is concerned.

Propose New Subdivision.
That subdivision of the J. M. Talcott tract on Orange avenue, adjoining the subdivision of Ashby Turner on the north, is proposed was disclosed when P. G. Beissel appeared before the council and secured approval of the proposed subdivision. An official map will later be presented.

Application of E. W. Allen for permission to operate a clothes cleaning establishment at 710 Cypress street, was referred to H. H. Dale, fire commissioner, and Dr. J. I. Clark, health officer.

Request of L. V. Trujillo for permission to conduct a hand laundry at 1034 Logan street was referred to the same committee.

Check from the Pacific Electric Railway company for $310.48 as tax on franchise granted under ordinance No. 414 was accepted.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of Chris McNeill for $2787.75. McNeill is contractor on the remodeling job at the city hall and the warrant was made as third payment on the contract.

Map of Franklin tract, corner First and Daisy streets, was approved and settled and there were no lifeboats left, all those on board were able to unite in breathing the prayer, "Our Father, who art in Heaven."

The Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, will be the speaker at tonight's services at the First Methodist church.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD WILL CONSIDER BIDS

(Special to The Register)
ORANGE, Jan. 10.—At a meeting of the high school board scheduled for tomorrow night further consideration of the bids recently submitted in connection with the erection here of a new high school auditorium was expected.

Many of the bids, opened recently, were found to be in excess of $140,000. Out of the $160,000 bond issue, voted to cover the expense of the new structure, not more than $130,000 remains, board members explained, and it was believed many of the bids would be returned.

At Wednesday night's meeting, however, several bids which have been retained by the board, are to be discussed in detail and it was said that one or two of these might receive favorable consideration. This consideration, it was said, might lead to minor alterations in some of the plans, with the aim of cutting down the bids to bring the total within the desired amount.

Adopt Paving Plans.
A resolution was passed accepting plans and specifications for paving South Parton from Walnut south to Fairview avenue and South Van Ness from Camille to Fairview. The improvement is to be four-inch concrete base and 1½-inch asphalt surface.

Request of Sam Stein to hang an electric sign in front of his new location at 307 West Fourth street was referred to Councilman J. W. Tubbs and Building Inspector W. S. Decker, with power to act. The sign is a little larger than is permitted under an ordinance regulating electric signs.

Two amendments to Ordinance No. 32, adopted June 20, 1917, were given their first reading and referred back to the city attorney. The ordinance covers sanitation and the amendments prohibit the keeping of live animals, the maintenance of cesspools and the depositing of waste matter within 100 feet of any water reservoir within the city.

Last night was the date for hearing protests on the organization of a sewer district to install sewers on Greenleaf, West Santa Clara and West Nineteenth streets. No protests were filed.

Miscellaneous Business.
Charles S. Kelly, of the Rowley Drug company, was given permission to put in a basement elevator on the Main street side of the drug store. The elevator will provide a means of getting goods into the basement from the sidewalk.

City Attorney G. H. Scott was directed to notify Shelly Horton that he must remove accumulations of street sweepings at the city barn according to his contract. Horton purchased the right to the street sweepings for a period of two years.

At the last meeting of the council he complained that with the street sweeper operating, the cleanings were not of the same value as when gathered by hand sweepers. He asserted that at the present time, or since the rain, the pickup was nearly straight dirt and not worth hauling away.

The Cream

The cream of newspaper circulation is HOME circulation—the papers that are delivered directly and regularly to the subscribers' doorsteps.

That is the circulation you can depend upon. Day after day it goes straight to the mark—into the home, where the buying impulse originates. Over NINETY-EIGHT per cent of The Register circulation in Santa Ana is delivered to the home. Less than TWO per cent is sold by newsboys and newsdealers. That's why REGISTER advertising brings such good results.

"FOLLOW THE ARROW"

SAYS HIS COURT NOT AN AGENCY FOR BAD DEBT COLLECTION

Justice Cox Declares Some Business Men Take Advantage of New Statute

Advocates Pauper Affidavit Before Applicants Given Recognition in Court

"The small claims court was created for the poor man. It was never intended that the county be made a collection agency for business houses or a weapon for revenge seekers."

Justice J. B. Cox today wasted few words in summing up his opinion of the small claims court, as represented by the above terse statements.

They explain his newly established rule of hearing all such cases at 5 o'clock in the morning. This, he frankly admits, is a move to discourage what he believes is a misuse of the small claims court and a violation of the law under which it was created.

The law provides that in the small claims court, suits may be prosecuted and defended without an attorney or court costs.

Held Unfair to Poor

Since the small claims court was created last August, Justice Cox has handled twenty-seven such cases. There is a growing tendency, he observes, to divert the court to the use of persons who are well able to employ an attorney and pay court expenses. This, Justice Cox feels, is not only unfair to the county, but it is unfair to those who transact their legal business through the customary channels without trying to evade the expense of its transaction.

He feels that a remedy is needed. Says Law Defective

"The law should require every person," he says, "to file an affidavit that he is unable to employ an attorney before permitting him to bring suit in the small claims court. Business men, who, through their own negligence or from over-eagerness because of competition, acquire bad accounts, should not be allowed to use the county as a collection agency."

In the absence of a legal remedy, Justice Cox plans to do what he can to keep down the practice. He objects to, hence the five o'clock sessions announced Saturday when a woman appeared in court to file suit against her own daughter for board and room.

"It's five o'clock for them," the judge reiterated. "And I'll be here to meet them," he finished.

ONE DEAD, THREE ARE HURT IN GUN FIGHT

OKMULGEE, Okla., Jan. 10.—One bandit was shot and killed, another wounded, a third captured and police captain Homer Spaulding and Patrolman L. M. Lamore were wounded in a gun battle here today. Three other bandits escaped.

DRAMA CLASS WORKS TO PERFECT PLAYS

Having finished rough practice on two plays, the drama class at the high school is now hard at work perfecting the plays to be presented during one of the future assemblies.

There being many more pupils in the class than there are parts in the plays, it was found necessary to form groups with a complete cast in each group. After the parts were learned, each group acted the play out under the supervision of Miss Amy Livingston, drama instructor.

Those winning parts in the girls' play are Velma Miller, as the white-faced girl; Alla Neely, as the country woman; Persana Diemling as the city woman; and Muriel Rash as Nora, the maid.

The cast of the boys' play is Alphonse Mendoza as the blind man, Merle Hall as the stranger, and Gerald Mitchell as the policeman.

THREE CLUBS TO HEAR TALK ON PLAYGROUNDS

With members of the Rotary and Lions clubs extended special invitations to be present, Kiwanians today were expecting a large attendance at the club meeting to be held at St. Ann's Inn tomorrow.

Great interest is centered in the meeting by reason of the fact that the speaker is to be E. B. de Groat, of Los Angeles, an expert on playgrounds and community center work, with many years of valuable and successful work to his credit.

He is now Los Angeles city executive of Boy Scouts and is coming to Santa Ana to address members of the three clubs at invitation of Major M. B. Wellington, president of Kiwanis, who is an old friend.

All of the clubs are directly concerned with civic improvements and it is the desire of the Kiwanis club that as many members as possible of the Rotary and Lions clubs share with it the information the speaker is expected to impart in his address.

R. R. Miller, county probation officer, will be chairman and Ellis Rhodes will sing.

"We hope that members of the Rotary and Lions clubs will attend in large numbers in response to our general invitation," said Wellington today. "I know that de Groat's address will be of value to all."

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT REPORTED RECOVERING

Eric Twist, young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Twist, 1520 North Main street, was recovering today from cuts and bruises sustained when he fell from his bicycle in the path of an automobile driven by A. F. Nowotny yesterday. The fall was caused by a collision between two bicycles, one ridden by the injured boy and the other by his companion, Stanton Daley. Nowotny took young Twist to his home.

"It's five o'clock for them," the judge reiterated. "And I'll be here to meet them," he finished.

WHY BANKS ARE EXEMPT FROM LICENSE TAX

State Equalization Board Alone Has Power to Impose Tax on Shares

What! The banks of Santa Ana don't have to pay any business license tax—why?

This is the question that is agitating the minds of those who manage the affairs of the business corporations in Santa Ana other than the banks. They want to know why it is that the banks are exempt from the business license tax, while other corporations, which also pay corporation taxes to the state, are not likewise exempt.

It is a fact that the banks do not pay the city license tax or fee, and that Special City Attorney Clyde Bishop has advised the city council that such city tax or fee is not collectable from the banks. He cites as authority for this opinion subdivision C, section 14, article 13 of the state constitution, which reads as follows:

"The shares of capital stock of all banks organized under the laws of this state or of the United States shall be assessed and taxed by the state board of equalization, and an annual tax of one per cent upon the value thereof paid to the state. . . . This tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses state, county and municipal upon such shares of stock and upon the property of such banks. . . . except tax upon real property."

This is a specific exemption in behalf of the banks, but there is no such specific exemption in behalf of other corporations. Just why other corporations which pay the same corporation taxes to the state that the banks pay, are not exempted as the banks are, deponent sayeth not. But such is the fact, for the constitution amendment providing for the payment to the state of corporation taxes by incorporated companies further reads as follows: "All franchises other than those of the companies mentioned (that is to say, the banks) shall be assessed at the actual cash value, and shall be taxed at the rate of one per cent each year, and the taxes collected therein shall be exclusively for the benefit of the state."

This is official information secured by The Register through a letter to City Clerk Vegely, which was referred to Special City Attorney Bishop and to which he made detailed and specific reply.

OIL WELL STARTS OUT AS TOWN TAX REDUCER

LONG BEACH, Jan. 10.—The municipally owned oil well in Long Beach, heralded as a possible tax eradicator, started the flow of finances into the city treasury here when a contract was made by Long Beach with a large California oil company for sale of 15,000 barrels of oil, the city's initial allotment of the production. The contract price was $1.21 a barrel.

The well has been operating about three months, producing between 300 and 500 barrels a day, having been drilled by a private corporation on city grounds by agreement under which the city gets 40 per cent of the oil produced and the operating company 60 per cent. Several other wells are being drilled in the city under similar conditions.

"Our growth will be greater in the next two or three years and we must provide facilities for educating the children of those families who desire to locate here, otherwise our increase in population will be retarded."

"We are in the position today where we must provide more school facilities if this department of the city is to keep step with the development and growth of Santa Ana," said Andrews today.

The increase in population, with consequent increase in attendance at schools, for the past two years has been far beyond the anticipation of the most enthusiastic boosters of the city.

OVERLOOK DIAMONDS BUT STEALS NEW HAT

A burglar who entered the residence of C. F. Heil, 319 East Washington, only stopped to exchange hats, thereby overlooking diamonds worth several thousand dollars, it was shown in a report of the burglary at police headquarters today.

Entering the Heil residence Sunday night, the burglar made away with a brown beaver hat. Outside of the house he discarded his own headgear, a light brown felt hat. A label inside of the hat, showing that it was purchased in Stockton, is the only clue obtained by the police. The burglar worked without shoes, marking himself as the same man who visited the home of Dr. F. C. Kinsey on North Olive street.

WOMEN OF CITY WILL SUPPORT BOND ISSUE

With parent-teacher associations of the city organizing for active work in behalf of the $250,000 primary school bonds to be voted on Thursday next, the board of education this afternoon was preparing to meet at 1 p. m. tomorrow to complete plans for getting voters out to the polls in order to carry the issue by a large majority.

In event that the bonds carry $120,000 will be devoted to the erection of a new building on the northwest corner of Sycamore and Church streets, to contain at least twelve school rooms, with additional rooms for the school administration.

The new structure will supplant the present wood building on the site, a school house that has done service for twenty-five years or longer, and which at times has been declared unsafe.

A new school house to contain seven rooms, including kindergarten, is also planned for the eastern part of the city, with the cost of building and site estimated at $75,000.

The remainder of the funds will be used in buying equipment for the new structures and repair and painting of some of the grammar school buildings.

No organized opposition has developed against the bonds, so far as is known to F. L. Andrews, secretary of the school board. Indorsements have not been sought from clubs, but all have been asked to cooperate in the effort to advance Santa Ana as a city of good schools.

It is said members of parent-teacher associations, composed of patrons of the schools who are in close touch with conditions as they obtain today, are giving the bond issue their hearty support and have given assurance that they will exert their greatest influence to carry the election.

IMPLICATES TRIO BUT MUST FACE TRIAL ALONE

Confessed Store Burglar to Have Preliminary Hearing Here Tomorrow

Jose Murrieta will have a solitary role, instead of rounding out a quartette, when he appears before Justice J. B. Cox tomorrow afternoon for an examination on a charge of burglary.

All members of the gang who participated in the Mexican "dream weed burglary" attempt at the Prince dry goods store in Anaheim recently are in custody, but Murrieta, who was captured at the time, is the lone representative of the ring to face prosecution here. The other three, although they were later captured by Orange county officers, are now held by the San Diego authorities.

The reason they are in San Diego is twofold—Murrieta's alleged confession to Sheriff C. E. Jackson implicated his companions too late for Jackson to hold the men, whom he had just arrested and turned over to San Diego. San Diego officers now decline to turn them back for good and sufficient reasons of their own, those reasons having to do with the burglary of the Huffman clothing store at Escondido shortly after the "dream weed" attempt in Anaheim.

Of "Dream Weed" Origin

The "dream weed" attempt gains its name from the fact that Anaheim police officers, Choate and Moody, found a can of marijuana in a car driven by Murrieta, whom they pursued for a mile from the Prince store before capturing him. In this forbidden deed, production of which is prohibited by law, they believed they saw the inspiration for the ring's criminal activities.

Three confederates who were looking for the store when the officers sighted Murrieta and pursued him, escaped safely, but abandoned about $5,000 worth of loot which was later found near the store.

A few days afterward Sheriff Jackson and his deputies raided a billiard hall at Delhi and arrested two Mexicans on a gambling charge. They were brought before Justice J. B. Cox where some were found guilty and some were not. The latter were released. Among them was one named Anton Marriaz.

Three hours after Marriaz had been given his liberty Jackson arrested him on request of the San Diego authorities, in connection with the Escondido burglary. At the same time, Mike Rivera, of Garden Grove, and a third Mexican were arrested. All three were sent to San Diego.

Makes Confession

Very soon afterward Murrieta decided to confess. He named Marriaz, Rivera and a third Mexican, whose name he did not know, as his confederates in the attempt on the Prince store.

By that time, however, the San Diego authorities felt that they had a clear cut case against their prisoners. They preferred not to yield them to Orange county.

The Huffman store at Escondido, owned by a former Santa Ana business man, was entered one Saturday night and was robbed of a quantity of clothing.

Early Sunday morning an automobile overturned on the Irvine boulevard and spilled a bundle of Escondido clothing, together with Marriaz, Rivera and a third Mexican on the ground. The car was towed to a Tustin garage and the Mexicans came on to Santa Ana, carrying the clothing at a certain spot in this city. It was recovered after their arrest and is expected to prove strong evidence against them.

Meanwhile Murrieta alone will face prosecution in Orange county.

U. C. MEN TO SURVEY MILK PRODUCING COST

BERKELEY, Jan. 10.—Agents of the farm management department, University of California, are already in the field in twenty-three counties of the state engaged in a survey of the cost of producing milk, the chief of the inquiry, Professor R. L. Adams, announced. His agents are first taking an inventory of equipment and stock used in the dairy industry. Later they will figure the overhead in milk production, which includes labor, feed, repairs, maintenance of equipment and other expenses.

From all the data secured it will be possible to determine with exactitude just what it is costing the dairymen to lay down milk at the railway and at the distributing stations. The investigation was asked by dairymen and is expected to result in cheaper milk.

SUN MAID RAISIN GROWERS IS NEW NAME

FRESNO, Jan. 10.—Directors of the California Associated Raisin company meetings here decided to change the name of the association to the Sun Maid Raisin Growers, omitting the word California. Fred A. Seymore was elected general manager of the association and C. A. Murdock was made assistant general manager. All secretaries, Seymore was formerly assistant to the president, while Murdock was secretary. Business and trade reasons were given as the cause of the change in the name of the association.

TITLED BEAUTY TO BE BRIDESMAID AT PRINCESS' WEDDING

JUNIOR COLLEGE ELECTIONS SET FOR MARCH 31

The question as to whether the Santa Ana junior college district shall be formed will be voted on at an election to be held March 31.

On that same day the organization of the Pullerton junior college district will be determined by a vote of the people of that district.

That these elections will be held on the date mentioned was stated today by County School Superintendent R. P. Mitchell.

Mitchell has received a petition from each district asking that the junior college district be formed. Mitchell has verified the signatures appearing on the petitions, and on each case he has found them to be sufficient. He has certified the petitions to the state board of education, and is awaiting its approval.

Under the state law, as Mitchell finds it, the question will be voted upon at the time of the annual election of school trustees. In Orange county school trustees for every district, excepting Santa Ana, will be held on March 21, the law fixing the last Friday of March as the time for the election.

No Board Elections

Santa Ana will not elect school trustees at that time. Santa Ana's school board exists under a state law that allows its school board to be elected every four years at the same time that city officers are elected. The fact that Santa Ana high school district last summer was enlarged by the addition of five elementary school districts—Delhi, Diamond, Greenville, Harper-Fairview and Newport Beach—has made no difference in the arrangement for an election. At least that is the ruling of state officials, and the county school superintendent will recognize their rulings until the court decides differently, if it ever does. It is understood that a test of this provision of the law is to be made in San Bernardino county.

Although school trustees are not to be elected on March 31 in Santa Ana, the election will be held on that date.

Santa Ana will be divided into precincts by Mitchell. The polling place at each of the districts outside Santa Ana will be the same place set for the election of elementary school trustees in those districts.

The question to be voted upon at that time will be "yes or no" on the formation of the junior college district.

Same Boundary Lines

Under the state law when a junior college district's boundary lines conform to the boundary lines of a high school, as is contemplated in the Santa Ana and Pullerton petitions, the high school board automatically becomes the junior college board. The district's business is then operated as a separate district, though it is contemplated in the law that the facilities and equipment of the high school shall be open to use by the junior college.

A separate budget for junior college use is to be made out each September, submitted to the county school superintendent for approval, and passed on to the board of supervisors for the fixing of a rate, just as is done now in relation to high school districts.

UTT RIVER PLAN GAINS SUPPORT AS PRACTICAL SOLUTION OF STORAGE

Conservation Advocates to Meet at Anaheim Next Thursday Afternoon

PROPOSE NEW DISTRICT

Collins' Pit Suggestion to Be Given Consideration By Committeemen

Orange county ranchers and many others interested in water conservation today were preparing to attend the meeting of the water conservation committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, called for next Thursday afternoon by Chairman J. Frederick Ahlborn. The meeting will be held at 2 p. m., in the offices of the Anaheim Union Water company.

With the announcement by Ahlborn that every possible effort will be made to bring the respective proposals to an immediate head, interest today centered in the suggestion of C. E. Utt that a dam be built at Rincon, below Prado, near where the Santa Fe railroad crosses the Santa Ana river.

Utt's plan, which has challenged the lively interest of the members of the committee and the executives of the two water companies operating in the Santa Ana valley, calls for a dam one hundred feet in height with a storage capacity of between one and two hundred thousand acre feet of water. This dam, Utt believes, would solve the flood problem and add many millions to the annual production of this valley.

Revive Old Plan

When questioned today, officers of the Santa Ana River Development company said this was virtually the same general plan this company had given consideration several years ago, and it was admitted that discussion of a similar project had been renewed as a result of the publication of Utt's proposal.

At a meeting of the water development company, held on December 23, this and other flood control and water conservation plans were discussed. It was believed the subject again would come up for discussion at a meeting of the Santa Ana River Development company scheduled for January 26.

Discussing the Utt plan here today George Bates, a member of the subcommittee recently appointed by the full committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, declared his belief that the proposition outlined by Utt was entirely feasible.

"While this is not exactly the same plan investigated several years ago by the water companies, I think the suggestion is a valuable one," said Bates. "And if it is put into actual operation I believe the plan will at once solve our flood problem and pave the way for the greatest development this valley has ever experienced."

Solve Pumping Problems

"The Utt plan could be followed out, regardless of whether there was bedrock near Prado. I know that similar dams have been built where there was no bedrock. If we could run through such a project at Rincon the pumping plant troubles of nearly all the ranchers in this valley would be solved. We could generate Often people remark about unusual success achieved by so-and-so. We'd be willing to wager that such success was gained only by the use of unusual methods.

Success doesn't come from just ordinary methods. It takes more than that to achieve unusual results.

We have tried to attain success by giving our clients an unusual Personal Service. Judging its results by our success, it has been an unusual method.

But we don't want you to forget, no matter where in Orange County YOU may chance to reside, that this same personal service is YOURS to command. We are Insurance Headquarters for YOU and YOURS.

We'd be glad to explain further at your request.

The facts, as explained here, are simple.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues; starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat; and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with milk or cream for breakfast; or with stewed fruit, jelly or jam, as a delicious dessert for lunch or dinner.

Every member of the family will relish this palatable and nourishing food—

whereby a junior college that enrolls and carries a student of a district outside the junior college district can collect from the resident district of the student for his schooling, just as now can be done by a high school when it has cared for an outside student.

Fullerton, for instance, will be able to collect from Anaheim for the cost of schooling any Anaheim student who may enroll in Fullerton junior college.

State Retains Control
The principal reason, it seems, why the law requires the petition for a junior college district to be referred to the state board of education seems to be that the state board proposes to keep control of the number of junior colleges in the state. It is said that there is a strong sentiment in the state board in favor of only one junior college to the county since there are two well-established in this county—one at Santa Ana and one at Fullerton—it is quite certain that the state board will set aside its general preference and will approve each of the petitions that have gone in. It is quite likely, however, that it will not sanction the organization of any additional junior colleges.

Aids State University
The junior college system is designed by the state board as a means of decreasing the enrollment at the state university. It is hoped so far as possible to have students who otherwise would ask admission to the state university receive their first two years of university work in the junior college. The law states that whenever a junior college school board wishes the courses offered by a junior college and the faculty will be investigated by representatives of the University of California, if the college is offering those courses as preparation for advancement standing of the student at the university.

The state is to share with the local taxpayers in the support of the junior colleges. The law states that in making apportionment of state funds, the county school superintendent shall apportion $2,000 to each junior college district and in addition shall apportion $100 per student as shown in the daily average attendance.

The district itself, however, must enough power to supply the entire valley. I think possibly the water companies had some such plan in mind when they investigated the possibilities of building such a dam near Scully's Point. Later they abandoned the project.

The "pit" plan, fathered by F. D. Collins of Orange, will be recommended to the Associated Chambers committee, Bates said, with certain modifications suggested by the late H. Clay Kellogg. In addition, Bates said, the sub-committee, of which he is a member, will urge the formation of an association of water users to take the initial steps in a movement designed to form a huge irrigation district in Santa Ana valley.

With these and other plans scheduled to receive thoughtful consideration, Thursday's meeting will develop into one of the most important gatherings of its kind ever held. Committee members said, and a full attendance has been urged.

SUE FANNIE HURST FOR $250,000 LIBEL

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The Hope Hampton productions, which produced the film "Star Dust," from the recent novel by Miss Fannie Hurst, has sued Miss Hurst in the supreme court for $250,000 damages for libel because of her criticisms of the picture. The plaintiff says it is offended because Miss Hurst not only cast aspersions on the quality of the picture, but also charged that it is not a bona fide adaptation of her novel and that the concern had no right to use her name in connection with it.

The plaintiff alleges that Miss Hurst gave the producer the right to make any changes necessary in making the screen play of her novel and states that it intends to continue using her name in connection with the film.

make provision for not less than $100 per student. At the present time, under the plan whereby the junior college is operated practically as part of the high school, the state apportion only $30 on daily average attendance.

The Great Impersonation

By E. Phillips Oppenheim

CHAPTER VII

There had been a dinner party and a very small reception afterwards at the great Embassy in Carlton House Terrace. The Ambassador, Prince Terniloff, was bidding farewell to his wife's cousin, the Princess Elderstrom, the last of his guests. She drew him on one side for a moment.

"Your excellency," she said, "I have been hoping for a word with you all the evening."

"And I with you, dear Stephanie," he answered. "It is very early. Let us sit down for a moment."

He led her towards a settee but she shook her head.

"You have an appointment at half-past eleven," she said. "I wish you to keep it."

"You know, then?"

"I lunched today at the Carlton grill room. In the reception room I came face to face with Leopold von Ragastein."

The Ambassador made no remark. It seemed to be his wish to hear first all that his companion had to say. After a moment's pause she continued:

"I spoke to him, and he denied himself. To me! I think that those were the most terrible seconds of my life. I have never suffered more. I shall never suffer so much again."

"It was most unfortunate," the Prince murmured sympathetically.

"This evening," she went on, "I received a visit from a man whom I took at first to be an insignificant member of the German bourgeoisie. I learnt something of his true position later."

He came to me to explain that Leopold was engaged in this country on secret service, that he was passing under the name which he gave me—Sir Everard Dominey, an English Baronet, long lost in Africa. You know of this?"

"I know that tonight I am receiving a visit from Sir Everard Dominey."

"He is to work under your auspices?"

"By no means," the Prince rejoined warmly. "I am not favourably inclined towards this network of espionage. The school of diplomacy in which I have been brought up tries to work without such ignoble means."

"One realizes that," she said. "Leopold is coming, however, tonight, to pay his respects to you."

"He is waiting for me now in my study," the Ambassador asserted.

"You will do me the service of conveying to him a message from me," she continued. "This man Seaman pointed out to me the unwisdom of any association between myself and Leopold, under present conditions. I listened to all that he had to say. I reserved my decision. I have now considered the matter. I will compromise with necessity. I will be content with the acquaintance of Sir Everard Dominey, but that I will have."

"For myself," the Ambassador reflected. "I do not even know what Von Ragastein's mission over here is but if in Berlin they decide that, for the more complete preservation of his incognito, association between you and him is undesirable."

She laid her fingers upon his arm. "Stop!" she ordered. "I am not of Berlin. I am not a German. I am not even an Austrian. I am Hungarian, and though I am willing to study your interests, I am not willing to place them before my own life. I make terms, but I do not surrender."

Those terms I will discuss with Leopold. Ah, be kind to me!" she went on with a sudden change of voice. "Since those few minutes at midday I have lived in a dream. Only one thing can quiet me. I must speak to him, I must decide with him what I will do. You will help?"

"An acquaintance between you and Sir Everard Dominey," he admitted, "is certainly a perfectly natural thing."

"Look at me," she begged.

He turned and looked into her face. Underneath her beautiful eyes were dark lines; there was some thing pitiful about the curve of her mouth. He remembered that although she had carried herself throughout the evening with all the dignity which was second nature to her, he had overheard more than one sympathetic comment upon her appearance.

"I can see that you are suffering," he remarked kindly.

"My eyes are hot, and inside I am on fire," she continued. "I must speak to Leopold. Freda has asked me to stay and talk to her for an hour. My car waits. Arrange that he drives me home. Oh! believe me, dear friend, I am a very human woman, and there is nothing in the world to be gained by treating me as though I were of wood or stone. Tonight I can see him without observation. If you refuse, I shall take other means. I will make no promise. I will not even promise that I will not call out before him in the streets that he is a liar, that his life is a lie. I will call him Leopold von Ragastein."

"Hush!" he begged her. "Stephanie, you are nervous. I have not yet answered your entreaty."

"You consent?"

"I consent," he promised. "After our interview, I shall bring the young man to Freda's room and present him. You will be there. He can offer you his escort."

She suddenly stooped and kissed his hand. An immense relief was in her face.

"Now I will keep you no longer. Freda is waiting for me."

The ambassador strolled thoughtfully away into his own den at the back of the house, where Dominey was waiting for him.

"I am glad to see you," the former said, holding out his hand. "For five minutes I desire to talk to your real self. After that, for the rest of your time in England, I will respect your new identity."

Dominey bowed in silence. His host pointed to the sideboard.

"Come," he continued, "there are cigars and cigarettes at your elbow. Whisky and soda on the sideboard. Make yourself at home in that chair there. Africa has really changed you very little. Do you remember our previous meeting, in Saxony?"

cellency."

"His Majesty knew how to keep Court in those days," the Ambassador went on. "One was tempted to believe oneself at an English country party. However, that much of the past. You know, of course, that I entirely disapprove of your present position here?"

"I gathered as much, your Excellency."

"We will have no reserves with one another," the Prince declared, lighting a cigar. "I know quite well that you form a part of a network of espionage in this country which I consider wholly unnecessary. That is simply a question of method. I have no doubt that you are here with the same object as I am, the object which the Kaiser has declared to me with his own lips is nearest to his heart—to cement the bonds of friendship between Germany and England."

"You believe, sir, that that is possible?"

"I am convinced of it," was the earnest reply. "I do not know what the exact nature of your work over here is to be, but I am glad to have an opportunity of putting before you my convictions. I believe that Berlin the character of some of the leading statesmen here has been misunderstood and misrepresented. I find on all sides of me an earnest and sincere desire for peace. I have convinced myself that there is not a single statesman in this country who is desirous of war with Germany."

Dominey was listening intently, with the air of one who hears unexpected things.

"But, your excellency," he ventured, "what about the matter from our point of view? There are a great many in our country, whom you and I know of, who look forward to a war with England as inevitable. Germany must become, we all believe, the greatest empire in the world. She must climb there, as one of our friends once said, with her foot upon the neck of the British lion."

"You are out of date," the Ambassador declared earnestly. "I see now why they sent you to me. Those days have passed. There is room in the world for Great Britain and for Germany. The disintegration of Russia in the near future is a certainty. It is eastward that we must look for any great extension of territory."

"These things have been decided?"

"Absolutely! They form the soul of my mission here. My mandate is one of peace, and the more I see of English statesmen and the more I understand the British outlook, the more sanguine I am as to the success of my efforts. This is why all this outside espionage with which Seaman is so largely concerned seems to me at times unwise and unnecessary."

"And my own mission?" Dominey enquired.

"It is nature," the Prince replied, "is not as yet divulged, but if, as I have been given to understand, it is to become closely connected with my own, then I am very sure you will presently find that its text also is Peace."

Dominey rose to his feet, prepared to take his leave.

"These matters will be solved for us," he murmured.

"There is just one word more, on a somewhat more private matter," Terniloff said in an altered tone. "The Princess Elderstrom is upstairs."

POLY SQUAD MEETS CHAFFEY TOMORROW

Little Known of Opponents But Locals Expect to Cop Victory

With a victory chalked up as a start in the league race, Coach H. Marvin (Spud) Morrison's five at the high school is prepared to break a few records on the court.

The next opportunity to negotiate a victory will be afforded the Poly athletes tomorrow afternoon, when they entertain the Chaffey Union high school five on the local courts. Nothing is known of the Ontario lads, except that they play five men on a team. All else must be discovered in a practical test, to occupy forty minutes, with an intermission at half time.

Poly is confident, however, that the San Bernardino county lads will be well occupied and that another wreath will rest on the banner of the home team Wednesday night.

On Friday the Poly squad skips over to Huntington Beach to find amusement with Coach Ray Walker's heroes. The Huntington Beach lads have been passing out surprises this year, and Coach Morrison finds little comfort in the prospect. He is working the team with a view to a hard battle.

The lasses are not going to be idle this week, either. On Thursday the Anaheim maidens will troupe down into the county seat, and give battle to the Poly six. While Coach Wilson's charges cannot make the claim to invulnerability advanced by their brothers, they do boast of every bit as much enthusiasm.

HE HOLDS RECORD AS REGULAR COMMUTER

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—"Our little town of Lombard, Ill.," a subscriber writes in the Outlook, "can I think, break the record for old age activity. Josiah T. Reade for fifty-seven years has been going to his work in Chicago from Lombard as a regular commuter. He was 92 years old last August, and still goes each working day to Chicago, where he is regularly employed, traveling a distance of more than forty miles each day. His work evidently is entirely satisfactory, as his salary was raised last year. He still has all his faculties intact. In addition to his regular work he is the librarian at Lombard, attending to all the details of a 4,000-volume free library, founded and developed by himself. He is the oldest living graduate of Amherst college and attended the alumni meeting there last June."

JUNIOR HIGH TEAMS CLASH; LOW 7-1 IS EASY FOR LOW 7-4

In a junior high school interclass game last evening the Low 7-4 defeated the Low 7-1 in a game of indoor baseball, 10 to 1.

It was a one-sided battle from the start, with the seven-ones on the bottom of the heap at all times. Gilbert Matta of the winning team walloped the horseshoe for a home run, scoring several of his teammates, but outside of that play the affair was not spectacular.

LOGAN WINNER OVER SCHLAIFER AT OMAHA

OMAHA, Jan. 10.—Bud Logan, Omaha welterweight, won the decision over Morris Schlaifer, Omaha, after ten rounds of hard fighting. Logan won by a very slender margin.

Carl Puryear, Denver bantam, outpointed Frankie Schmalzer in seven of the ten rounds, but the Milwaukee boy was given a draw because of a whirlwind finish.

POSTPONE OPENING OF FIGHT ONE WEEK

The Delhi Athletic club arena will be dark for another week.

George Levine, who was to have been one of the main event performers this week, accepted a challenge for a bout in Bisbee, Ariz., and today Promoter "Ike" Neal received word that the boxer would be unable to appear for the club January 11, but would be on hand for a bout January 18.

Among other fighters Neal announces will appear on opening night are Young Stanley Ketchel, Jack Iman and Henry Gaitten.

ORANGE TO RETURN TO OLD SYSTEM OF NIGHT BASKETBALL

ORANGE, Jan. 10.—Nocturnal basketball will be revived at Orange this evening after a lapse of several years when the Orange high school team tangles with the Sweetwater high school, National City, champions of San Diego county.

Incidentally the old Orange Athletic club will be used for the first time since the war, arrangements having been made for its joint use by the Y. M. C. A. and the high school.

Sweetwater is said to be represented by a fast organization, capable of putting up a good brand of basketball. The worth of this year's local squad was demonstrated last Friday when second half rally nearly overcame a healthy Fullerton lead.

FIGHTERS UNDER BAN OF CLEVELAND MAYOR

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 10.—Boxing, both professional and amateur, today fell under Mayor Fred Kohler's sweeping campaign to clean up Cleveland.

Professional bouts were barred here shortly after the Kilbane-Frush scrap when charges of irregularities were launched by officials.

Several amateur cards, listed for this month, were ordered cancelled by the mayor pending investigation into the athletic situation by fight authorities. The ban will not be permanent, it was stated.

If boxing is resumed it will be under strict supervision of a commission, Kohler announced.

GREENWICH VILLAGE HAS RIVAL, 'TIS SAID

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Greenwich village, famous in story and song as the abiding place of art, has a rival as New York's quartier Latin.

The presumptuous aspirant—thus characterized by those who love the Greenwich village section of Manhattan—is the "Heights" in Brooklyn. About it still clings the odors of sanctity, recalling days of its glory when it was the center of the fashionable society of Gotham's transients. But the village's scorn personifies expression when they are forced to mention it.

Meantime the Brooklyn colony is waxing strong. Of the six judges selected to choose the prize winners for costumes at the yearly art models ball, four reside on the "Heights."

FULLERTON QUINTET TO BATTLE BURBANK

Oil Drillers Going Through Hard Practice for League Season

(Special to The Register)

FULLERTON, Jan. 10.—Burbank high school's five will arrive here tomorrow afternoon to engage in a practice game with Coach Glenn Lewis's basketball team.

Although not entirely satisfied with the showing made Friday in the game with Orange, Coach Lewis was nevertheless gratified at the victory, and he and the team's followers entertain high hope of a successful season. Practice is being carried on faithfully here, and the results are beginning to make themselves evident in the conduct of the team on the court.

On Friday the team goes to San Juan Capistrano to engage with the Mission team. The Missionites met decisive defeat at the hands of Santa Ana in the opening game there, and the local lads anticipated no trouble in disposing of them. It is realized, however, that they may prove a different proposition on their own court.

OCCIDENTAL TO PUT ON A. A. U. CONTEST

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—At a meeting of the Southern Pacific association of the A. A. U., held last night at the L. A. C. C., the annual A. A. U. championships were awarded to Occidental college. The date set for the affair is April 15, which will come between the City League meet and the Southern California prep championships.

Another important step taken by the athletic body was to add the broad jump to the events included in the A. A. U. relay carnival. The carnival is to be held at Redlands university February 18. Competition among the high schools will be divided into three classes, those belonging to the City League comprising Class 1, while Santa Ana, Fullerton, Santa Monica, Redlands, Pomona, Riverside, Chaffey Union, Santa Barbara, San Diego, and San Bernardino making up Class 2, and all other high schools in Southern California, Class 3.

Class 1 will be governed by rules now in existence in the City League, while all other competition will be under the C. I. F. jurisdiction.

ORANGE

ORANGE, Jan. 10.—The funeral of Mrs. William Lusk, of North Tustin street, was held Saturday morning.

Interment made in Fairhaven.

Mrs. Lusk died Thursday, January 5, and leaves, besides her husband, two sons, Grant and Ray, of Orange, and a daughter, Mrs. A. B. Campbell, of Villa Park.

Mrs. Eugene Elson has as her guest Mrs. Charles Wheaton of Rock Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Perry, who have spent the two weeks holidays with parents and friends have returned to their home in Hemet.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mills and Mrs. B. Horton are entertaining their niece, Mrs. E. Hill Rickey, of Pasadena.

Mrs. Mary Barton, late of Duluth, and Mrs. E. B. McCoy (recently spent several days in Los Angeles).

E. J. Vaughn was a business man in Los Angeles yesterday, and today Vaughn, an expert on fire arms, was a witness in the Burch case.

Fred Boulder, of Healdsburg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. Van Bur, and family, of 129 North Cypress.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Posen of Navelencia, and Mrs. Sam Totten, of Long Beach, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Decker.

The seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of J. Gogler of South Glassell street, was fittingly celebrated Thursday afternoon in Concordia hall which was beautifully decorated in Christmas colorings for the occasion.

Fire Chief A. L. Tomblin recently appeared before the city commissioners asking that the board order the purchase of a siren for his machine to be used during runs for fires. The request was granted and the siren ordered.

The Rev. Mr. Kirby, an evangelist, spoke in the El Modena church at both services yesterday and during the coming week will preach every afternoon excepting Monday and Saturday's and every evening during the week.

An interesting wedding was celebrated at 10 o'clock Friday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson of 603 North Shaffer street, uniting Miss Alice M. Carlson and J. L. Cole, the Rev. H. J. Hill being the officiating clergyman in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. Cole is a business man of Santa Ana, where the future home will be made.

For homes, lots, land and loans, insurance, securities, advise with The Corneli company.

TUSTIN AT MISSION TOWN FOR PRACTICE BASKETBALL CLASH

(Special to The Register)

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Jan. 10.—The high school team was this afternoon battling with the Tustin five in a practice game on the local courts.

The Tustin players came to town with a good reputation, and were confident of victory. The visitors tacked a defeat on to the local team at Tustin, in a previous practice game, and also boast of a league victory over Whittier. On the other hand the first league game resulted disastrously to the local team, Santa Ana copping the victory in a contest last Friday.

Despite the pessimistic outlook the home lads were determined to put up a different brand of ball this afternoon, and a stubborn conflict was looked for. The affair this afternoon is the first home game this season. On Friday the local high school team entertains Fullerton.

WALKER WINS OVER OLD MAN GRIFFITHS

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Mickey Walker, contender for Jack Britton's welterweight title, outpointed Johnny Griffiths, of Akron, O., last night in 12 fast rounds at Jersey City.

ST. LOUIS TO STAGE WOMEN'S GOLF CLASH

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The 1922 world's women western golf championship tournament has been awarded to the Glen Echo Country club of St. Louis by the Woman's Western Golf association.

A tentative date for the week of August 28 has been set.

OVER $1,000,000 IS SPENT FOR TOYS

Over $1,000,000,000 has been expended for toys by the people of the United States this year. The factory value of toys manufactured in the United States more than trebled when the war cut us off from that former chief source of our toy imports, Germany, and the value of the "toys and games" turned out by our factories in 1919, the latest census year, is officially stated at $46,000,000 against $14,000,000 in the preceding census year 1914. Meantime the import of toys which fell from $8,000,000 in the year prior to the war to a little more than $1,000,000 in the year of its close, quickly advanced to $6,000,000 in 1920 and $10,000,000 in 1921, so that the imports of toys in the fiscal year 1921 were actually greater in value than in any year preceding the war.

While this unexpectedly prompt inflow of toys from foreign countries has somewhat reduced the output of the toy factories of the United States in the current year, the fact that the capital engaged in the industry advanced from over $10,000,000 in 1914 to probably $25,000,000 in 1919 in which year the number of employees exceeded 10,000, suggests that the output of our own factories in 1920-21, plus that of the doll factories which are not included in the group entitled "toys and games," plus the importation in 1921 of $10,000,000 worth of dolls and toys from abroad, with an aggregate factory valuation of considerably over $50,000,000, must have cost the "ultimate purchaser" fully $100,000,000 in 1921, despite the tendency toward economies which has characterized trade conditions during the year.

TOO MUCH WEIGHT

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Joseph Ramsey, with two companions, looted the safe of a confectionery store. Ramsey took his share in pennies, over one thousand of which weighed him down so that detectives overtook him.

DEPARTMENT MANAGER'S SALE

Ordered To Smash All Sales Records

Instructions from the Buyer

To all Department Managers:

I am going East for my spring buying trip. I am now turning over to you the entire $35,000 stock, consisting of the most complete line of high grade merchandise—clothing, shoes, ladies' and men's furnishings, all kinds of new and reclaimed army goods, camping supplies, yard goods and thousands of other articles too numerous to mention. I want you to break all the selling records of the past year. I am not quoting you any price, will let you do your own slashing. I expect you to empty all the shelves, clothing racks and every shoe box in the house, and make a complete sweep of the entire stock during this sale.

(Signed) H. GRANZ, Buyer.

Legal Notices

The purpose for which the election is ordered and for which writs are held on the 10th day of January, 1922, is to elect the members of the Santa Ana School District of Orange County, California, the question whether the bonds of such district shall be issued and sold in the sum of $250,000.00 for the purpose of raising money for purchasing school lots, for the building of school buildings, to-wit: school house, for supplying such buildings with furniture and necessary apparatus, and making alterations and additions to school buildings.

For the purpose of holding the election called and ordered to be held, Santa Ana School District of Orange County, California, has been divided into six (6) special election precincts, and for that purpose the voting precincts at and within the City of Santa Ana (the boundaries of which city are identical with the boundaries of the school district) as such precincts were established by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Orange, State of California, for the purpose of holding general elections, and as the same in the year and for the general election held on the 14th day of January, 1921, and are hereby consolidated into six special election precincts and numbered special election precincts from 1 to 6, both inclusive.

For each special election precinct a polling place has been and is designated and established and officers of election appointed, to-wit: Clerk, and two judges, each of whom shall be qualified electors in one of the precincts comprising the special election precinct where he or she is appointed, and as follows:

Special election precinct No. 1, consists of general election precincts of the City of Santa Ana, as above specified, Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 2

EVENING SALUTATION "Would you have your songs en- dure? Build on the human heart."

"Uphold All Law."

This slogan has been adopted in spirit by the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

When the eighteenth amendment was passed, a great many people seemed to have the idea that the W. C. T. U. had finished its work and that there was no real reason for continuing the organization. The idea was erroneous, of course. The W. C. T. U. immediately found its field of endeavor to be extended to include world prohibition. Recently, however, its efforts seem to have been concentrated upon law enforcement in the United States. And in its fight it is associated with forces and organizations that were not necessarily for prohibition a few years ago. These forces and organizations, however, recognize that the enforcement of the Volstead act has become a keystone of law and order. Men who are accounted to be good citizens have aided lawbreakers. They have become patrons of law-breakers. The wave of crime that has swept the country is grounded on disregard of law, and any element in American life that favors disregard of law lends a helping hand to the irresponsible element that goes far beyond the bootlegging element in its law-breaking, that carries law-breaking to robbery and murder.

The enforcement of all law as a necessary cornerstone to the stability and maintenance of our nation is recognized as essential by the W. C. T. U. of this county, and this principle is to be emphasized throughout the convention of the W. C. T. U. to be held in Santa Ana this week.

BUTTE'S HAPPY NEW YEAR

There is rejoicing in Butte over the opening of the copper mines. The nine months shut-down has been a nightmare which the district hopes never to see again.

From day laborer to bank president, the lack of industrial activity has been keenly felt and one and all were brought to a realization of the fact that it is operating industries which make good times.

The mayor of Butte in a message to the citizens said:

"Announcement of the opening of the mines marks the end of a period of industrial inactivity which has never before been experienced in Butte. Coming at this time it will give to the city its happiest New Year."

Railroad business will be increased, additional electric power will be demanded, sawmills will feel the benefit and every line of business will share in the millions which will again be spent for payrolls and supplies.

The basis of Butte's period of depression was lack of work; the basis of its period of recuperation and prosperity is work.

And what a magic thing is work! Its blessings cannot be estimated. The man or organization or community that creates work pulls a strong oar in getting the boat underway against the tide or in holding the boat steady until the tide comes.

Butte is overjoyed because there is work to be done. It is a happy New Year for Butte, and the opening of the mines at Butte no doubt herald revival of interest in mining elsewhere in the West.

HOMELY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Those who grew up under a regime which the present generation likes to jeer at were taught that the chief value of education, won by hard study, lay in giving one resources of the mind. It made people feel equal to tackling any problems of life, no matter how difficult.

Beside resources for the work day, there were resources for leisure. The cultured man could always find joy in books, in quiet contemplation. The trained mind does not need to be amused. It amuses itself, and usually for the world's betterment.

The chief defect of the young, as their elders now look down upon them from the height of maturity, seems to be that they are, according to all old standards, uneducated. They cannot amuse themselves for ten minutes. They do not know how to do useful things. They have to go to shows, or to dance, or to play cards madly, or to gamble madly with foolish toys, to rush around madly in automobiles.

Who is to blame? Everybody, more or less, but chiefly mothers and fathers. They were lazy while the children were young. They taught their children none of the homely accomplishments which make life rich.

"Does the woman who thoroughly understands the housewife arts get bored?" asks a New York educator. "Not she. When the dishes tier her with their monotony, she can, because she is an expert, forget what her hands are doing, and turn her mind to the book she has been reading. Though darning stockings and sewing on buttons wears her, yet will the sight of fresh gingham in a store window stir her soul to creative zeal. While Mrs. Jones across the way is spending every cent her husband makes on flimsy clothes, and foolish bridge and foolish shows in which noise passes for music or silliness for fun, and restaurant food with dancing which is ruining the digestion and tempers of both of them, the woman who was educated is getting ahead financially, is teaching her children to do things better and easier than she can, is having a happy home life in which the whole family shares."

What are we all after, anyhow? Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness?

Well, who gets it? The doers or the drifters?

FAMILIES ARE DIVIDED

The case of two Russian families detained at Ellis Island shows another defect of the present immigration law that was not foreseen when the law was enacted. Two Russian fathers and two Russian mothers are eligible for admission to the United States, but their two children, aged eight and 10 months, are marked for deportation. The fault of those babies consists of having been born in Constantinople instead of in Russia.

The babies should have known better, no doubt, and their parents share their blame as partners in the offense. But that doesn't help the awkward human situation created by an inflexible law which recognizes nothing but mathematical quotas, and can see only that the Turkish quota is filled up, though the Russian quota is not.

This situation is particularly absurd because the immigration rule, in determining an immigrant's eligibility by his place of birth regardless of other circumstances, disregards the fundamental law applying to American citizenship. A child born of American parents in Constantinople would not be a Turk but an American. And these very children, by Russian law, are Russians, not Turks.

Self-regulating Interest

San Bernardino Sun

We hasten to call the attention of Senator King and the Redlands Facts to "newly discovered evidence" with reference to the interest rate on State highway bonds. It will be remembered that a few days since our Redlands contemporary declared that the increased rate on highway bonds was a bit foolish, and if we had waited just a little, the market would have readjusted itself, so that the bonds would sell at the original rate of 4 1/2 per cent.

A sale of a block of $7,000,000 of the bonds made at Sacramento last Thursday brought such a surprising premium that the interest actually figures 4.39 per cent. The total premium offered for the block was $639,000, a San Francisco bank made the bid, and so desirable are the bonds that another San Francisco bank was only $50 under the successful bid. Below these two high bids were three other bidders.

These bonds, under the amendment voted by the people will bear 5 per cent interest, but we will not pay 5 per cent. In reality the state will be paying but 4.39 per cent, and the result is that instead of borrowing $7,000,000 at this particular bond sale, we borrowed $7,639,000, and get it for 4.39 per cent interest.

Just how many bonds were sold at the higher rates we cannot say, but it was only a small proportion of the total bond issue of $40,000,000. A month ago state bonds sold on about a 4.75 per cent interest rate, and the low market point—when the highest interest rates on such securities was demanded in July, six months ago, when bonds were sold on a 5.75 per cent basis. A drop in bond interest rates from 5.75 per cent to 4.39 per cent in six months is nothing less than an amazing recovery. The money market, which is the reflection of all general business conditions, is "getting better fast."

Farmers Plant Heavily

Long Beach Press

Huge acreage is being planted to wheat and rye in the United States, according to official estimates of the United States department of agriculture. This despite the enormous shrinkage, this year, in crop values, as compared with last year—shrinkage that ran up almost to 50 per cent. The area planted to winter wheat this year is only 12 per cent less than the acreage last year, and the acreage planted to rye is almost 23 per cent greater than last year.

This indicates commendable courage on the part of farmers. It dispels any fear that the husbandmen of the cereal belt might go on strike, as it were, and curtail their acreage until the diminution of supplies would be serious. Notwithstanding this year's lean financial returns, the farmers, with grit characteristic of Americans, come back to the fields with confidence, and plant approximately the normal acreage. This doubtless will prove to be a good business move on their part. For the pendulum of prices very probably will swing back in the farmer's favor by the middle or the end of the New Year. The demand for farm products doubtless will be quickened. The world must eat. In order to eat, a large part of the world must buy foodstuffs in large quantities from the United States. A larger foreign demand for American grain and breadstuffs, and for the yield of American orchards and gardens, is vitally assured.

Senate Leadership in West

Pasadena Star-News

A Western man—Senator McCumber of North Dakota—is to succeed the late Boies Penrose as chairman of the finance committee—one of the most important of all Senate committees. It is this committee which is all-powerful in farming federal taxation bills and has charge of tariff measures for the Senate. Senator McCumber is one of the leaders of the farm bloc in the Senate, and his succession to the post of chairman of the finance committee will give that element tremendous power in Congress.

For the first time in nearly half a century the Eastern seaboard states are deprived of this masterful position—the chairmanship of the Senate finance committee. Its coming so far West as North Dakota is significant of the ever-growing importance of the West in national politics. Not only is the Middle West obtaining greater recognition in Washington, but the Pacific West as well. This section has obtained and retained important positions in the President's cabinet; important committee assignments in both houses of Congress; and high appointments in the federal service. This increasing prestige is earned. The West has grown and is growing rapidly in population; is developing prodigiously, and has interests which entitle it to influential voice in the affairs of the national government.

Some One Wants Karl

Esno Republican

We cannot be sure of the basis of information coming from Europe about the efforts of the one-time Austrian emperor to get back from the Madeira Islands to his old home town. Empress Zita, who made trouble enough, as is known, during the war, is reported to be in Italy trying to prepare the way for the return of her consort to his field of imperial operations.

But the interesting part of the story is that Prince Sixtus, cousin of the emperor is being very active in this matter. One would suppose that Sixtus would stay quiet. His intrigue was one of the most startling features of the last month of the Austrian empire. Karl's "Dear Sixtus letters" were a means of undermining the relationship of the Central Empires and hastening the triumph of the Allies. They broke down the weakening morale of the upper political structure at Vienna and at Berlin.

We can't help but view the whole intrigue to restore the Hapsburgs in either Austria or Hungary with amazement. Why should anyone want them back? The only explanation seems to be that things are so bad in these two fragments of Europe that any change may be for the better and why not try Karl again.

Yep, This is the Week of the Big Thaw

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

OUR HUNGRY SOULS

It is a strange fact that those who seem to have most in material possessions, are the hungriest in soul.

Jesus—that great Physician to the soul—seemed to understand this as few have. One day a very wealthy man came to Him to talk things over. The man had become much interested in this Teacher who had attracted wide attention. This is what Jesus told him: "You will have to sell all you have before you will be in the right spirit to become a partner of mine in the work that I am doing."

On several occasions others came to Him for advice as to what to do with their lives, and His reply was always to get rid of the things which made the spiritual life a secondary affair.

When the woman at the well told this Man about her life and how she came regularly to draw from that well, He told her that it was possible to have a well of water in her heart that would continually flow and quench her spiritual thirst forever.

And that is what we all must learn very early—that which we have, whether much or little, is merely loaned to us for a short time, and that the important task in life is to increase the health and wealth of our spiritual selves.

I always like Christmases, and birthdays, and anniversaries—because they make you think of somebody else—and that's the greatest way to feed your soul.

Two hungry men, talking over their condition between themselves, get nowhere. But it is possible for two hungry souls to talk together and each leave the other's presence filled to overflowing. For the soul longs and yearns for a place to go—and the simpler and humbler that place, the greater the feast.

In the same manner as bread is the "staff of life" to the body, so is love the great food of the soul.

So if you would be filled in soul—love much. Try not to question worth too much—just love and love and love. It will all come back!

HEALTH

SOMETHING ABOUT HOW TO KEEP WELL

A CHILD'S TONSILS.

It is often the case that children may develop a severe general infection following close on acute tonsillitis. Adults, too, may become victims of the same infection.

This ailment may show itself by painful swelling of the joints and so-called acute articular rheumatism, and in some instances the lining of the heart and the heart valves also are infected.

After a prolonged sickness the child apparently recovers, but a second examination of the heart will show that the heart muscle is weak and the valves are rough and do not close correctly. Hence the pump, or the heart, is working at a disadvantage.

Such a happening usually comes at a critical time in a child's life. He is tired of being kept indoors by sickness and wants to romp and play.

But if he tries to keep up with the other children in their strenuous games, he puts a severe strain on his heart muscle. The usual result of such a strain is that there will develop a permanent valvular defect in the heart that will in all probability shorten life.

There is but one way to prevent all this. It is by enforced rest over a long period of time. Rest can rarely be carried out in a normal busy household, especially if there are other healthy youngsters.

Such cases require the utmost care in handling and frequent advice from the family physician. If properly treated, even badly damaged heart valves return to a practically normal state.

Every acute infection, especially every case of tonsillitis, should be considered serious, and the heart should be pronounced well before the child is allowed to take up its normal mode of life again.

Waves Move Fast

Even in stormy weather the average height of waves in mid-ocean does not as a rule exceed 30 or 40 feet. Sometimes, however, one enormous wave makes its appearance amid the rest, scientists say.

Why this should happen no one can say. All we know is that a mighty mass of water rushes suddenly toward a ship at more than 100 miles an hour.

If the ship can meet such a wave with her bows she will ride over it, though thousands of tons of water may sweep over her decks. But if the wave is following her and rushes at her from the stern, she may fail to rise. Many a good ship has gone to her doom in this way.

These vast mountains of water rise sometimes to a height of more than 100 feet. They have been known to extinguish the masthead lights of sailing ships.

Sometimes on a perfectly calm day there will be a sudden troubling of the surface of the sea, and without the slightest warning a wave 150 feet high will appear.—Portland Oregonian.

Bear Stories for Bedtime

CHAPTER 238

BILLY BEAR FALSELY ACCUSED
By Harvey Elliott

Tommy Smith was up by daylight to see if he could find any tracks of the fellow that had robbed their house. He had hardly gotten around the corner of the house when he shouted,

"Father, Mother, come out here quick!"

Father Smith got out as soon as he could finish lacing his shoes. He usually wore his boots in the morning, but there were no boots to be found. Around the corner lay the flour bag burst open and flour scattered all over the ground. Down by the chicken house they found the meal sack also broken open. They found one chair behind the straw cabbages and the dishpan filled with cabbage leaves in the garden.

Before the day was over they had found nearly everything that was missing except that smoked ham. Whoever the thief was, he had doubtless taken that home for breakfast. Then Farmer Smith never did find his boots. He thought Billy Bear must have worn them home.

But Tommy found one thing that they had never known was gone. As he was looking around the chicken house he saw something dark in one of the hens' nests. He pulled it out, and what do you think it was? Well, sir, it was the trousers of Tommy's best suit. Maybe you think he didn't storm around as he had them up and tried to brush the wrinkles out!

Well, things were more of a mystery than ever. Of course they had no doubt that Billy Bear was the guilty one, but they couldn't understand what could make him want to perform such a stunt as that.

That afternoon one of Smith's neighbors came by with his hunting hounds. They told him of the strange happening of the night before. At once he suggested that they put the hounds on the track and they would see if they couldn't run that young Bear down.

"Maybe you can run him down," said Farmer Smith, "but I wouldn't give much for your hounds if they tackle that Bear."

Tommy and his father and the neighbor started off with the hounds and Collie the shepherd dog. The dogs seemed to be following a trail. They led on to the edge of the mountains, when all at once the dogs began a violent chorus of barking. They were after some advance, but stood the ground and savagely barked and growled.

When the men came up they saw a strange-looking animal on the edge of some craggy rocks. It showed no signs of fear until it saw the men and then it turned and disappeared.

Then they examined the rocks nearby. They found a bone that had been stripped of its meat. "It's our lam," cried Tommy, as he pointed to the string around the bone by which they had hung it up.

Farmer Smith recognized the animal that the hounds had tracked, and that he saw enter the rocks.

A Wall street man was very keen on having proficient clerks in his employ. Before a clerk could enter his office he was required to pass a written examination on his knowledge of the business.

At an examination, one of the questions was "who formed the first company?"

A certain bright youth was a little puzzled at this, but was not to be fooled. He wrote:

Noah successfully floated a company while the rest of the world was in liquidation."

It requires not only the presence of the germ but some outside influence to lower the resistance of the body before you will become a victim of this disease.

The greatest predisposing cause of pneumonia is fatigue. One gets all tired out and then the germ attacks, the cells of the body can't fight back.

Loss of sleep leaves the cells exhausted by the work of the previous day and gives them little time to repair and rest themselves.

Overeating is harmful. It clogs the body with a great deal of useless material that requires overtime work on the part of important organs of digestion and elimination. The body is not able to maintain its defenses at maximum strength and do this other work, too.

Little Benny's Note Book

I was setting at the setting room table modelling with my new modelling clay and ma was imbrodering imbrodering and pop was reeding the paper last nite and all of a sudden he started to laff loud as anything and ma sed Reed it out loud.

Its nuthing in the paper, I jest happened to think of something funny that happened down in the office today, it was one of the funniest things I ever herd haw haw haw, sed pop.

Well tell me about it, dont sit there jaffing so selfish, sed ma.

Well you see theres a little office boy down there named Cohen, ha ha ha, and today the boss got mad at him and haw haw haw he started to laff him out till he was black in the face, sed pop.

Who was black in the face, the boy or the boss? sed ma, and pop sed, The boss of course, and ma sed, Well was funny about that?

Let me finish for the love of Peet, Ive jest started, sed pop, well ha ha ha after the boss had balled him up for 10 minits without coming up for air little Cohen finally speeks up and says, Trest me ruff, boss, Im Irish, haw haw haw.

Is that it? sed ma, and pop sed, Certenly thats it, dont you see the joak?

You dont meen to say you call that a joak? sed ma, and pop sed, Its the best joak Ive herd for months, dont you realize the kids name was Cohen?

Well wat diff'ats does that make, suppose his name was Jones, was then? sed ma, and pop sed, You have no more sents of humor than a wild clam, absooltely none. And he slammed his hand down hard as anything rite in my modelling clay and pop was so surprized he jumped up with the clay sticking all over his hand saying, Wat the confounded it is this?

Hee hee, thats certenly funny, Willyam you certenly look redickulous, hee hee hee who sed I have no sents of humor? Do you think it would make it eny funnier if your name was Cohen? Hee hee hee, sed ma.

Im going to the movies by myself, sed pop.

Wich he did.

Lafayette's Son

The Century Company says that comments provoked by "Sword of Liberty," recently published, has impressed the fact that the average American seems never to have heard of George Washington Lafayette.

It seems strange that his story was not exploited during the wartime resurgence of enthusiasm about Lafayette and his noble friendship for this country; yet how many Americans know that Lafayette, ette had a son named after his fast friend, General Washington, or that the boy was at one time a refugee in this country?

This story is part of the background of the account of two revolutions—American and French—contained in the book. Following the earlier phase of the French revolution, during which Lafayette was so immensely popular, and after the hostility to his moderation had developed which drove him to exile, he sent his son to America, to the care of the American George Washington for whom he was named.

It was this boy, according to the authors, Frank W. and Corielle J. Hutchins, who, on returning from America, dug up from the garden of the Paris residence where they had been buried, the two swords given to Lafayette by the American Congress and the French Republic in recognition of his services in the two revolutions.

This George Washington Motier de LaFayette was born in 1779; he was therefore but 13 when he fled to America, in 1792 and his distinguished father to the neutral territory of Liege.—The Argonaut.
